Dear Traveler,

Embark on an adventure to America's Last Frontier, where mountain peaks soar into sapphire skies, glistening glaciers meet icy blue waters, and dense forests surround historic towns.

Welcome to Alaska, a land of rugged, unspoiled beauty and an abundance of amazing wildlife. Cancellation penalties may differ from the cruise program related penalties. Regent Seven Seas Cruises may modify the cruise itinerary up to and during the voyage.

REGENT SEVEN SEAS CRUISES' AIR PROGRAM: Airfares are non-refundable within 60 days of departure. Travelers participating in the Cruise Program with Airfare who switch to the Cruise Program Only within 60 days of departure will not receive an air credit.

Due to airline schedules beyond the control of Regent Seven Seas Cruises, flight times to and from certain destinations may require that travelers purchase an overnight hotel stay, pre- or post-flight or en route. All charges related to hotel stays, including hotel fares and taxes, meals, transfers, phone charges and incidentals, will be at the travelers' own expense.

NOTICES: Any complaints or claims against GN must be made in writing and received by GN within 90 days after scheduled termination of the trip. Any action or suit against GN must be commenced within 1 (one) year after scheduled termination of the trip or be forever barred.

The rights and remedies relating to cancellations and major changes prior to departure, made available under this agreement are in addition to any other rights or remedies available under applicable law. However, we offer any refunds under this agreement with the express understanding that the receipt of that refund by you waives all other remedies.

INSURANCE: Travel insurance is available and may cover you against unforeseen covered reasons. See panel above for details.

INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS ONLY: International travel involves stringent identification and documentation requirements. Be sure you are familiar with them sufficiently in advance and early in your planning.

ADVISORY: When you are traveling outside of the United States, please be aware that significantly different health, safety and legal standards may prevail. You should plan and act accordingly and exercise good personal judgment for your own health and safety at all times when abroad. If you have special medical or physical requirements, you should investigate your destination(s) beforehand and ensure the care and conditions you need will be available.

IF YOU CHANGE PLANS OR CANCEL, YOUR RIGHTS TO A REFUND ARE LIMITED: The following charges will be assessed for cancellations.

If you cancel or change plans more than 100 days in advance of initial flight, a full refund, less a $300 per person administrative fee plus any applicable pre- and/or post-cruise program cancellation fees, is provided. Any refunds are provided only in accordance with the following schedule. Any requests for cancellation must be communicated to GN in writing. Identifiable refunds, if any, will be made within 14 days after the cancellation.

CANCELLATIONS: Upon receipt of written cancellation from you, the following fees will apply:

HEALTH: Any physical or mental condition requiring special medical attention or equipment must be disclosed in writing to GN at the time the participant makes a reservation. GN may reject the reservation of any person who, in the opinion of GN is unfit for travel or might be a danger to themselves or incompatible with others on the trip. Participants requiring special assistance, including without limitation those who permanently or periodically use a wheelchair, must be accompanied by someone who agrees to provide the required assistance. GN reserves the right to terminate the participation of any participant whose conduct or condition materially inconveniences other participants.

THESE ARE NO EXCEPTIONS OF ANY KIND (INCLUDING MEDICAL EXCEPTIONS) TO THESE POLICIES. PORTS OF CALL

HUBBARD GLACIER Viewing the majestic grandeur of Hubbard Glacier is surely one of the highlights of a journey to Alaska. Sail along a cliff face over six miles wide, 300 to 400 feet from peak to sea level and 300 feet from sea level to the bottom. As Hubbard Glacier advances, listen to the symphony of creaks and groans as it moves and calves. This makes for some exciting moments when the huge chunks of ice crash into the bay creating a wonderful sound called ‘white thunder’ by the Tlingit people.

SITKA Formerly the Russian capital of North America, the Russian flag was replaced by the Stars and Stripes in Sitka when the U.S. purchased Alaska. Today, Sitka is known for its fishing industry and its many historic visitor attractions. The only city in Southeast Alaska that actually fronts the Pacific Ocean, Sitka rivals Juneau for the sheer beauty of its surroundings. Take in Sitka’s beauty and fascinating history on a scenic walking tour. Or visit the Sitka National Historical Park, home to totem-lined forest trails and native Alaskan artisan exhibits.

TRACY ARM Tracy Arm is a scenic fjord that features massive tidewater glaciers, snow-capped peaks, waterfalls, and 2,000-foot granite walls that rise straight out of the water. This magnificent fjord, 60 miles southeast of Juneau, is highlighted by the beautiful Sawyer Glaciers and the gallery of icebergs that float down the length of it. Calm water is the norm here due to the protection the sheer, narrow fjord wall provides on the 30-mile arm. Seals and whales are often spotted in its clear, sapphire waters.

JUNEAU In 1880, Joe Juneau and Richard Harris were searching for gold with the help of native guides, when they found nuggets “as large as beans.” Out of their discoveries came three of the largest gold mines in the world where more than $150 million in gold was mined. Eventually the mines closed, but the town Joe Juneau founded became the capital of Alaska. Discover Juneau’s scenic natural beauty, stroll the city’s downtown waterfront, or visit the famous Mendenhall Glacier.

SKAGWAY A place of many names and much history, Skagway is the northern terminus of the Alaska Marine Highway and gateway to the famed Klondike gold fields. Skagway retains the flavor of the gold rush era, especially on Broadway, with its false-front buildings, and in the Trail of ’98 Museum, with its outstanding collection of memorabilia. Learn the art of gold panning on the shores of the Skagway River. Or enjoy a breathtaking panorama of mountains, glaciers, gorges, and waterfalls while riding a vintage parlor car on a historic steam engine train – an adventure in the true spirit of the gold rush!

KETCHIKAN The town grew up around sawmills and salmon canneries, and was once proclaimed the “Salmon Capital of the World.” An outstanding collection of totem poles make a visit to Ketchikan essential for anyone interested in Native art. Experience the Alaskan wilderness firsthand with a fishing excursion aboard a private skiff or perhaps explore the surrounding forests rich with wildlife.
