Rapidly expanding yet holding true to its roots, the city of Dublin offers a wide array of compelling attractions. A UNESCO City of Literature, Dublin was once home and inspiration to renowned writers W.B. Yeats, Oscar Wilde, Samuel Beckett, and many others. Georgian-style houses line spacious streets, friendly pubs welcome you in with their unique character, and tokens of history lie in wait of discovery across this compact, vivacious city.

July 11 Arrive in Dublin and transfer* to the four-star Trinity City Hotel. Spend the remainder of the day at leisure.

July 12 After breakfast, set out on a full-day sightseeing tour of Dublin. Begin at Trinity College, the oldest university in Ireland, and visit the Old Library to see the Book of Kells. A ninth-century illuminated manuscript, the Book of Kells is intricately detailed with vibrant colors created from crushed pearls, beetles' wings, and other organic matter. Stop at St. Patrick's Cathedral, the burial site of Jonathan Swift, before traveling to the Teeling Whiskey Distillery, located in the Liberties area of the Dublin City Centre.

July 13 This morning, set out on a half-day tour of the Guinness Storehouse. The museum demonstrates the brewing process and shares the history of the Guinness family and franchise. Tour the facility, sip a complimentary stout, and take in the city's sights from the top floor, which offers an unparalleled vantage point. Transfer to Sirena in the early afternoon.

This tour involves a moderate amount of walking, some over uneven or uphill terrain, and may not be suitable for those with walking difficulties. Local customs require the covering of knees and shoulders at religious sites.
