Castellon, Spain

CA5-002 CASTELLON AND VILAFAMES

Date: Jun 18, 2025 Time: 08:30 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $119.00

OVERVIEW

Explore the atmospheric streets of hilltop Vilafames and the town's Museum of Contemporary Art, a magnificent prelude to a walking tour of Castellon. As you meander through Vilafames, parts of which date to the 11th century, you will notice an abundance of whitewashed and earth-toned buildings, which lends Vilafames an enchanting ambiance that has long attracted artists. You will see some of their work at the Museum of Contemporary Art. Although the museum building is unexpectedly Gothic in design, it holds a collection of modern works that reflects the evolution of the Spanish avant-garde movement. Castellon also boasts a wealth of outstanding architecture, much of which has been painstakingly renovated, including the Old Casino and the modernist-style post office. The Santa Maria Cathedral is particularly notable because its 16th-century bell tower clearly tilts, a phenomenon that has given rise to its nickname—the Leaning Tower of Castellon.

- Browse the immensely creative art work in the Museum of Contemporary Art in Vilafames.
- Admire Castellon's downtown, which an urban renewal project has transformed.

CA5-003 THE FORTIFIED SEAPORT OF PEISCOLA

Date: Jun 18, 2025 Time: 08:45 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $119.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy the charms, architecture and ambiance of Peñíscola, a seaside village that hasn't changed much since the late Middle Ages. Crowned with a stone castle that the Knights Templar built, Peñíscola still looks impenetrable, which is why it is sometimes referred to as the Gibraltar of Valencia. You will enter the walled section of town through Saint Peter's Gate, a wide-arch portal with a keystone decorated with a coat of arms representing Pope Benedict XIII; the connection being that the pope turned Peñíscola's castle into his papal palace. Although constructed in the early 14th century, it looks even older, one of the reasons that the castle was chosen as a location for the HBO series "Game of Thrones" and the movie "El Cid," which took place in the 11th century. Other landmarks include a sea museum that illustrates Peñíscola's fishing traditions and a 12th-century church that was reconstructed centuries later in a Gothic style.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy the guide's enlightening commentary as you walk through heavily fortified Peñíscola.

• Gain an understanding of Peñíscola's fascinating and turbulent history.

CA5-004 INTRODUCTION TO CASTELLON & PAELLA COOKING

Date: Jun 18, 2025 Time: 09:30 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $299.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy an enlightening tour of Castellon before traveling to a country estate to watch a chef prepare paella for your lunch. As you will soon discover, the city has undergone an urban renewal that has revitalized the downtown. Many of the most historical buildings, including the Old Casino and the 17th-century Baroque-style Llotja del Canem hemp market, have been restored and the results are beautiful. For a different perspective of the region, you will head to a rural estate where a local chef will demonstrate how to prepare paella. Farmers traditionally cooked paella in a large flat pan using ingredients that were readily available in the rice fields such as tomatoes, onions, beans and snails or rabbit. As the chef prepares Castellon-style paella for your lunch, you will see why the shape of the pan and the intensity of the flame are so important and how the dish is seasoned for flavor and aesthetics. Then just settle in and enjoy the hearty meal.

HIGHLIGHTS

- See the effects of Castellon's successful urban renewal and how it has revitalized the downtown.
- Watch a chef prepare traditional paella step by step at a rural estate.
- Dine on freshly made paella with ingredients that reflect what's available regionally.

OVERVIEW

Meander through the medieval district of Morella while admiring landmarks such as its Gothic basilica and the castle ruins that loom over town. Even though the town perches atop an imposing crag that provided a natural fortress for centuries, the Spaniards crowned the crag with a nearly impenetrable castle in the 14th century and built a protective wall to further protect the residents against invasion. Below lies the beautifully restored medieval town, where you will enjoy an illuminating walking tour. While meandering the narrow streets and steep alleyways, you may see a house where St. Vincent supposedly performed a miracle, a 13th-century aqueduct and the Church of Saint Mary. Highlights of the Gothic-style church include stained-glass windows and an ornate altar flanked by

Date: Jun 18, 2025 Time: 09:45 AM
Duration: 8.00 Hrs Price: $249.00

OVERVIEW

Discover the region's vast diversity by visiting an orange farm, dining on traditional paella and cruising an underground river in a small boat. Known for their sweetness, Valencia oranges were first grown commercially in 1781 and now greatly contribute to Spain being Europe's leading producer of orange juice. After watching a short video about Valencia oranges and then seeing an exhibit of traditional tools once used to harvest them, you will sample several products made with oranges. The wood from orange trees is traditionally used for fires to cook paella, which you will enjoy for lunch. You should be able to detect a tinge of orange as you dine on this signature Spanish dish. You will then cruise the glassy waters of Europe's longest navigable underground river, which runs through the Caves of San Jose. For an idea of the cave's age, consider that the stalactites and stalagmites you see only grow about an inch a century.

- Cruise through the Caves of San Jose on the longest navigable underwater river in Europe.

Duration: 3.50 Hrs Price: $249.00

OVERVIEW

Experience the life of a sheep farmer and shepherd by visiting a characteristic farm that produces dairy products from highly prized Menorcan sheep. After departing from the pier, you will enjoy a scenic drive through the idyllic countryside to Son Triay (Ferrerries). Upon arriving, you will be welcomed at a family farm that tends a substantial herd of sheep. After an enlightening introduction to the family's lifestyle and the operation of the farm, you will walk into the fields where the sheep are grazing. The farm's Menorcan-bred sheep are milked to produce one of the island's few cheeses made with sheep's milk. Other cheeses usually contain lesser amounts of sheep's milk, which is then blended with raw or pasteurized cow's milk. You can taste the sea salt in Menorcan cheeses, the result of strong winds that soak the grazing fields with an ocean mist. The farmers may demonstrate how to milk sheep and shear them. Wool from Menorcan sheep has been prized for centuries, and the farmers will explain the attributes that make it so desirable. Following your immersion into shepherding and sheep farming, you will savor a tasting of farm-to-table dishes such as fresh-baked bread, cheeses, typical sausages and wine.

MAH-010 MENORCA BRITANNIA

Date: Jun 20, 2025 Time: 09:10 AM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $99.00

OVERVIEW

Trace the British influence on Menorca by visiting one fort that the soldiers expanded while occupying the island and then sampling gin at distillery that the British opened. After departing from the pier, you will soon arrive at Fort Marlborough, an early 18th-century fort named for the British general John Churchill, the first Duke of Marlborough. Starting in 1713, the British ruled Menorca on and off for nearly 100 years, and their influence can still be seen throughout Mahon, especially in military fortifications. While meandering around Fort Marlborough, you will learn about its construction, which features a well-concealed entry tunnel, and how the Spanish partially destroyed the fort during a siege in 1782. After the visit of the fort, you will be transferred to Es Castell: situated on the Port of Maó, it is the most British town in Spain. It was built during the 18th century by the British engineers and formally known as Georgetown (in the honor of George III of Britain). If you take a look at the street plan you will note that the streets preserve the original cross-sectioned streets reflecting its British roots and that there is a parade square together with the British barracks, with Georgian architecture featuring bow windows and typical “guillotine” windows. After a guided visit at the square, you will have some free time to visit the small fishing port. Leaving Es Castell, as further evidence of the British influence, you will visit a gin distillery that they opened in the 18th century. While touring, be sure to notice the original copper still and then enjoy a sampling of the gin.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour involves approximately 3 hours of walking, some of which will include inclines, steps, uneven and cobbled ground. It is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair or suffer from claustrophobia. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

While walking the cobblestone streets of Binibeca, you will notice that this whitewashed fishing village has retained its traditional ambiance. Similarly, traditional ways are practiced at the farm that you will visit on the outskirts of Alayor. MAH-012 MENORCAN-STYLE LOBSTER

Date: Jun 20, 2025 Time: 10:30 AM
Duration: 5.50 Hrs Price: $289.00

OVERVIEW

OVERVIEW Dine on the signature Menorcan dish lobster stew, which originated on the island more than 100 years ago. Although most chefs have their own recipes for Caldereta de Langosta, they all revolve around the spiny lobsters caught in the surrounding waters. The venue for your culinary experience will be the restaurant Sa Llagosta in Fornells, a traditional whitewashed fishing village on the north shore. It is an appropriate setting as poor fishermen created the dish when lobsters were considered less desirable than fish. Although chef David Coca will prepare your lobster stew according to his own special recipe, it will feature a classic sofrito of tomato paste, onions and garlic as its base. A cheesecake-like flaó will be served for dessert. While traveling to and from Fornells, you will see some of Menorca’s most naturally beautiful areas. They include Monte Toro, the island’s highest peak, from which you will enjoy spectacular views.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy the classic Menorcan dish lobster stew for lunch at a restaurant in Fornells.
- Gain insight into the history of the dish and how its recipe can vary from place to place.

OVERVIEW

Settle in for a spectacularly scenic drive into the Tuscan countryside to visit the ancient walled city of Volterra and a sheep farm that still practices traditional methods. Perched above the desolate surrounding terrain, Volterra appears timeless, one of the reasons it was chosen as the setting for parts of the vampire-themed "Twilight" books. While meandering the atmospheric streets and plazas, you will view highlights such as Tuscany's oldest town hall and the Piazza dei Priori, a medieval square lined with grand palaces. Nearby, you will enjoy an insider's tour of a sheep farm and a demonstration of how the animals are milked. Much of their milk is used to make Pecorino Balze Volterrane, a Protected Designation of Origin cheese. The Colline Pisane wine route passes nearby, and you will follow it to Le Palaie, an estate winery that also produces olive oil and honey.
