ITINERARY

- May 13 Arrive in Lisbon and transfer to the 5-star Hotel Altis Grand Lisboa or similar upscale accommodations. Settle in and enjoy the rest of the day at leisure to explore the nearby boulevards, shops, or cafés at your own pace.
- May 14 Today's full-day excursion transports you to the fairytale town of Sintra, a UNESCO World Heritage Site famed for its enchanting palaces and lush hills. Tour the Vila Palace, once a royal summer residence and one of Portugal's best-preserved medieval palaces, where ornate interiors and sweeping views offer a glimpse into regal life. Enjoy free time to wander cobblestone streets, sample local pastries, and take in the romantic atmosphere that has inspired poets and kings alike.
- May 15 Venture south through scenic countryside on a full-day tour of the Arrábida and Sesimbra regions, celebrated for their natural beauty and winemaking traditions. Stop in Sesimbra, a charming fishing village nestled between mountains and sea, and enjoy a leisurely 3-course lunch highlighting regional flavors. Then, savor a guided wine tasting at José Maria da Fonseca, one of Portugal's oldest and most renowned wineries, where heritage meets innovation in every pour.
- May 16 Start the day with a half-day panoramic tour of Lisbon, showcasing the city's vibrant neighborhoods and iconic landmarks. Drive through the modern Parque das Nações and elegant Avenida Novas, before admiring the tree-lined Avenida da Liberdade, often compared to the Champs-Élysées. Explore Lisbon's historic heart at Restauradores Square and Rossio, and step inside the exquisite Jeronimos Monastery, a masterpiece of Manueline architecture. Finish your morning in the Monumental District of Belém, home to Portugal's Age of Discovery landmarks. While there, indulge in a warm pastel de Belém pastry—an iconic local treat enjoyed in the tranquil Belém Gardens. As the tour comes to a close, transfer to Insignia to embark on your cruise.
