Date: Jun 02, 2026 Time: 09:31 AM

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $119.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy a relaxing narrated spin through Edinburgh, capturing the capital's ancient essence through its most iconic landmarks. One thing to keep in mind: in this Gothic cityscape, Old Town is truly medieval and even New Town hails from the 18th century. Brooding moodily above it all, stacked on a granite outcrop that no enemy could easily scale, Edinburgh Castle anchors the Royal Mile, a famous ridge-top stretch that runs down through several very scenic streets to end at Holyrood Palace, the Queen's official residence when in Scotland. Touring the streets of Old Town is a phenomenally atmospheric experience – you are transported back to what life here looked like centuries ago, when residents of all social classes shared the same "tenement buildings" crowded along the narrow ridge. Be ready for a startling contrast when you cross over by bridge to stately Prince Street, lined with handsome gardens on one side and "modern" Georgian architecture on the other. Holyrood's royal parklands remain the city's foremost green oasis, with serene ponds and plentiful waterfowl. A stop at the park's highest point, Arthur's Seat, provides a fabulous photo opp, with views that overlook all of Edinburgh and far beyond.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Travel by comfortable coach on a rolling survey of the one-of-a-kind cityscape that is Edinburgh.
- See signature cathedrals, medieval buildings, tiny alleyways and other landmarks along the Royal Mile, spanning between Edinburgh Castle and Holyrood Palace.

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $119.00

OVERVIEW

Join us on a coach excursion that passes key landmarks from Scotland's tumultuous past and travels through peaceful glens that rival the Highlands for natural beauty. In Scottish history, there's no more famous hero than William Wallace – more commonly known as Braveheart. On a drive west from the pier, skirting the Firth of Forth and the winding River Forth, you'll come upon an elaborately sculpted stone tower built in Wallace's honor at the height of the Victorian era. The National Wallace Monument sits atop Abbey Craig, where Braveheart rallied the Scots to a great victory in 1297. Nearby you'll see Stirling Castle, another huge symbol of national pride. For centuries, possession of this strategic fortress has been considered the key to ruling Scotland. Always bitterly fought over and staunchly defended, it overlooks the fields of Bannockburn, where Robert the Bruce prevailed against the English in a decisive battle for independence in 1314. Soon, the scenery grows more tranquil as the drive enters the Trossachs, a wonderland of wooded glens and sparkling lochs – once home to yet another Scottish folk hero, Rob Roy MacGregor. Some free time in Aberfoyle affords you an authentic taste of local village life.

SCR-001 THE CASTLE & GARDENS OF MEY

Date: Jun 03, 2026 Time: 08:31 AM
Duration: 3.50 Hrs Price: $209.00

OVERVIEW

Explore the remote 16th-century Castle of Mey and its magnificent gardens, which Queen Elizabeth II owned for decades and meticulously restored as a royal residence in Scotland. While following a guide through the multi-turreted castle – which the queen eventually gifted to a trust – be sure to notice its z-plan design, which features a central rectangular tower house and two wings at the diagonally opposite corners. Another feature well worth a look are the gun slits throughout the ground floor. Although parts of the castle such as the rounded arch entrance are original, much of the castle has been renovated. The gardens were also revitalized with hedging and new paths that created greater focal points. As you will see, the grounds are spectacular. You will also stop for photos at two nearby attractions: the early 1600s church Canisbay Kirk and Castle Town, a village much of which was constructed with locally quarried stone.

OVERVIEW
Spend free time exploring Wick, an ancient Viking settlement that was the busiest herring port in Europe in the mid-19th century. On the way there, you will pause for photos at John o’ Groats, another far northern village with an appealing historical ambiance. Wick straddles its namesake river and spills over both sides of Wick Bay. You will notice a distinct maritime ambiance throughout town and life still seems to revolve around the harbor, even though the herring boom ended in the mid-20th century due to overfishing. The influence of that industry is proudly displayed at the Wick Heritage Museum, which is well worth browsing. You might also visit the waterfront Seafarers Memorial that commemorates those that died at sea. For a bit of fun, drop by what the Guinness Book of Records lists as the world’s shortest street – Ebenezer Place, which is less than seven feet long.

- HIGHLIGHTS
- Independently explore the town of Wick, once the capital of herring fishing in Europe.
 - Enjoy the maritime atmosphere still so prevalent throughout Wick.
 - Meander about at your own pace and visit the attractions that sound most appealing.
 - Snap pictures at John o’ Groats, a remote village that lies along the coast.

- HELPFUL HINTS
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
 - Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

Ullapool, Scotland

ULP-001 KNOCKAN CRAG HIKE
Date: Jun 04, 2026 Time: 08:01 AM
Duration: 3.00 Hrs Price: $209.00

OVERVIEW

Hike the staggeringly beautiful trails of Knockan Crag, a set of ancient cliffs that taught 19th-century geologists the secret of what happens when continents collide. A walk across these exposed layered rock formations in the Highlands north of Ullapool lets you see 500 million years of geological history in a single glance – even touch it with your own hands. After an enlightening orientation of the crag’s geology in the Rock Room interpretive center, you’ll venture out along the trails. The hike will bring you past the famed Moine Thrust, where the darker rocks on top were discovered to be much older than the lighter-colored ones beneath them. The explanation of this phenomenon set the 19th-century scientific world afire – since it provided rock-hard evidence for the first time that the earth’s crust can shift sideways in response to enormous collision forces within its underlying tectonic plates. Well-understood now, the idea that these thrust tectonics could be responsible for building mountains – including the Alps and Himalayas – was utterly revolutionary at the time. Your present-day trek involves quite a bit of single-file walking, at times over steep rocky terrain, but the amazing views are well worth it.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Depart the pier by coach and be quickly immersed in the rugged beauty of the Highlands.
- Begin your visit to Knockan Crag Nature Reserve with an enlightening orientation in the Rock Room interpretive center.
- Set out on an expertly guided trail hike into a spectacular line of cliffs whose rock formations reveal powerful tectonic forces at work millions of years ago.
- Anticipate a slightly arduous trek – that delivers views and scenery worth every bit of the effort.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear warm, layered clothing including a waterproof outer layer.

- Flat, sturdy hiking shoes are required.
- Bring a hat, bottle of water from the ship, and sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 90 minutes of hiking over uneven natural surfaces, with some steep inclines and steps involved. Participants should be in good physical condition and have sufficient agility to proceed in single-file formation over narrow sections of hiking path. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests or those with mobility concerns and the cruise line and ground operator reserve the right to deny participation to any guests they deem unsuited to the tour’s activity level.

ULP-002 CORRIESHALLOCH GORGE & LOCH BROOM
Date: Jun 04, 2026 Time: 08:01 AM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $179.00

OVERVIEW

Revel in rugged beauty on a drive along Loch Broom to visit a waterfall gorge considered one of the Scottish Highlands’ most impressive natural wonders. Your coach will head south from the pier, tracing the shoreline of lovely, mountain-surrounded Loch Broom. Your destination is Corrieshalloch Gorge National Nature Reserve, a geological marvel carved out of the surrounding rock by a thunderous torrent of melt-water released at the end of the last Ice Age. The powerful River Droma still thunders through this tree-shrouded chasm, plunging down over 325 feet in a series of dramatic falls, tallest of which is the Falls of Measach, a sheer plummet of 150 feet. It’s a spectacular sight to see and hear up close, which you will soon do. Your guided woodland walk toward the waterfall leads across a suspension bridge that offers excellent views into the gorge, while a second bridge provides wonderful views of the lush cloak of ferns, mosses and liverworts that somehow manage to hang on to the steep ravine walls and riverbed boulders. After your invigorating walk, a return drive through wild Dundonnell Forest and tea at the Dundonnell Hotel make for a relaxed excursion finish.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a remarkably scenic coach trip along Loch Broom and into the Highlands mountain terrain.
- Visit majestic Corrieshalloch Gorge, a geological wonder carved out of the rock during the last Ice Age.
- Take a walk through the woods and over a pair of suspension bridges to a dramatic waterfall.
- Enjoy outstanding views of the primeval gorge and its sheer walls covered with lush growth.
- Drive back through a wild forest area, stopping for tea and a stroll at the Dundonnell Hotel.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear warm, layered clothing including a waterproof outer layer.
- Flat, comfortable walking shoes with a non-slip sole are recommended.
- Bring a hat, bottle of water from the ship, and sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes about an hour of walking and standing. At the gorge, the walk from the coach park to the suspension bridge is approximately 10 minutes over uneven gravel and sand surfaces. It is then necessary to cross the slightly swaying bridge and continue walking another 5 minutes in order to reach the second viewpoint. A significant gradient must be negotiated in order to visit the bottom of the gorge. However, nice views can be obtained without actually crossing the bridge. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and not recommended for those with mobility concerns.

Traversing the heather and grass terrain of Inverpolly National Nature Reserve, be on the lookout for red deer, wildcats, eagles and peregrine falcons. Later, a photo stop at Ardvreck Castle reveals a once-mighty bastion left in a state of romantic ruin for centuries. ULP-004 INVEREWE GARDENS & COASTAL DRIVE

Duration: 5.75 Hrs Price: $219.00

OVERVIEW

Follow one of Scotland's most gorgeous coastal routes to lush Inverewe Garden, a flourishing botanical oasis created out of a barren, rocky landscape in 1862. You'll head out by panoramic coach, tracing the shorelines of Loch Broom, Little Loch Broom, Gruinard Bay and Loch Ewe – fringed with pebbled beaches and Highlands villages. Mesmerizing though this landscape is, Inverewe Garden will still come as a complete head-turner. Visiting this natural paradise today, it's hard to imagine it was once a barren promontory battered by brutal winds and salt spray. The transformation began when Osgood Mackenzie bought the property in 1862, established 100 acres of pines to shelter it, brought in rich soil and began planting. Thanks to visionary planning and the warming effects of the Gulf Stream, Inverewe has blossomed into a subtropical wonderland despite sitting well north of Moscow's latitude. As you stroll its tree-lined paths, look for rare Wollemi pines, Himalayan blue poppies, olearia from New Zealand and rhododendrons from China and India. Exotic flowers are almost always in bloom, including many species from South America. Luckily, the Mackenzie family continued to seed this garden for generations, then ceded it to the National Trust for all to enjoy.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a stunning coach journey along the shores of several Western Highlands lochs and bays.
- Take in a pristine coastal landscape dotted with rocky beaches and traditional Scottish villages.
- At Inverewe Garden, step off the coach and into a surprisingly verdant subtropical world.
- Stroll garden pathways where exotic flora from around the world thrives despite being further north in latitude than Moscow.
- Learn how one man's vision was able to transform a windswept promontory into this green paradise.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear warm, layered clothing including a waterproof outer layer.
- Flat, comfortable walking shoes with a non-slip sole are recommended.
- Bring a hat, bottle of water from the ship, and sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes nearly 3 hours of walking and standing. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible chair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Due to gradients and tree roots, not all areas will be accessible to those in a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned only to participate to the extent of their personal stamina and ability.

IOM-002 HISTORIC CASTLETOWN

Date: Jun 06, 2026 Time: 08:01 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $209.00

OVERVIEW

Ride a classic steam-engine train through pastoral countryside and along the coast to Castletown, where the medieval Castle Rushen and House of Keys await. The Southern Steam Railway has been chugging away since 1874, the oldest line of its type in Britain. Your rail journey affords ever-changing, always spectacular views and the impressive sights continue when you arrive in Castletown. Founded in 1090 and once the Isle of Man's capital, this proud burg is little changed from how it looked in the 1800s. Perhaps that's because the town clock has only ever had one hand. Your inside tour of handsome, limestone-walled Castle Rushen takes you even further back in time – to when clammy dungeons and “murder holes” over the ceiling of passageways were the way to make would-be invaders feel...unwelcome. You'll notice things are a lot more civilized at the well-restored House of Keys, where the Manx parliament convened until the seat of government moved to Douglas in 1869. By the way, the Isle of Man's 1000-year-old High Court of Tynwald is the longest-running continuous parliament on the planet.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ride the rails by steam-powered train to the Isle of Man's former capital city, Castletown.
- Tour Castle Rushen, one of the British Isles' finest medieval castles, dating from the 13th century.
- See its classic castle features including dungeons, guardrooms, chapel and “murder holes”.
- Visit the House of Keys, where historic decisions were made by the long-running Manx parliament in the 1860s.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear warm, weatherproof clothing.
- Flat, sturdy walking shoes are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 2 hours of moderate walking, some over uneven ground and with steps to negotiate at the Castle. Guests must also be able to make their own way on and off the train which requires climbing a few high steps. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and those with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of stamina before participating.

You will come upon limestone outcrops, volcanic rocks and a quarry that supplied the stone steps for London's iconic St. Paul's Cathedral. While browsing the interior, you will view an outstanding collection of period furnishings, paintings, silverware and ceramics. Most of the pieces are from the last two families that lived in Milntown. You may also see the past owners' cars and motorcycles, many of which are nearly 100 years old. The gardens are equally impressive and full of horticultural wonders, a happy consequence of the warming Gulf Stream's influence on the microclimate. The majority of the gardens should be in bloom, including the shrub roses and herbaceous borders. For a different botanical perspective, meander along the Jungle Walk, where you will see unexpected species such as ferns native to Australia.

HIGHLIGHTS

- • Explore the residence and gardens of Milntown, a centuries-old country estate.
- • Browse the home's magnificent interior, which is furnished with period pieces.
- • Meander winding trails through the gardens, which should be a riot of color.

HELPFUL HINTS

- • Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- • Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes about two hours of moderate walking and standing with some steps to negotiate in the house and gardens. The house is not wheelchair-accessible; therefore, the tour is not available for wheelchair guests. Those with mobility concerns should evaluate their ability and stamina before joining the tour.

OVERVIEW

Wet your whistle in the classic Irish way with a tour and a taste at Dublin’s original Old Jameson Distillery. Whiskey-sipping has been a traditional Irish pastime for centuries; medieval Irish monks even referred to the distilled spirit as “water of life” in Gaelic. On this entertaining visit to the site of Dublin’s original John Jameson & Sons distillery, opened in 1780, you’ll learn much about how selected Irish barley and pure, soft Irish water are led through the archaic process of malting, milling, fermenting, distilling and maturing on their way to the finished bottle we know and love. Of course, no Jameson Distillery visit would be complete without a glass of their fine product – so you’ll enjoy one in the Jameson Bar, surrounded by wonderful Jameson memorabilia. What’s more, a lucky few volunteers will be given the opportunity to taste-test Irish whiskey against a scotch and a bourbon while their fellow tour guests look on. Mirth and amusement typically ensues, and diplomas are issued conferring upon the testers the esteemed title of Certified Irish Whiskey Taster. Applause and toasts inevitably follow.

DLG-007 PANORAMIC DUBLIN & IRISH COFFEE

Date: Jun 08, 2026 Time: 02:15 PM

OVERVIEW

Take a panoramic spin through the heart of Dublin's historic center, then linger over an Irish coffee in a traditional pub. With heritage stretching back over 1,000 years and the River Liffey dividing the city plan into two distinct halves, there's a lot to be seen here in this cosmopolitan capital. One of the most famous landmarks in all Ireland is here: St. Patrick's Cathedral, the country's tallest and largest church. Completed in 1270, it stands on the holy site where St. Patrick is said to have baptized converts to Christianity. And it's got quite a past. Oliver Cromwell once stabled his horses in the nave, Jonathan Swift was Dean here when he wrote Gulliver's Travels, and the cathedral choir took part in the debut performance of Handel's Messiah. Your informative drive through Dublin will bring you past many other historical and impressive sights – including the stately dome-and-columned Four Courts building, where bullet holes in the façade remain vivid reminders of the battle for Irish independence early the 20th century. You'll have much to talk about when, towards the tour's end, a stop is made for Irish coffee in a Dublin pub that's been around while itself.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Settle back and enjoy a guided coach journey through Dublin's history-filled city center.
- See and learn about key landmarks like St. Patrick's Cathedral, Leinster House and the Four Courts.
- Top off your experience with a soothing Irish coffee, served up at a traditional pub.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear weather-appropriate clothing; include a light raincoat or umbrella.
- Flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour is primarily panoramic, with limited optional walking. The only inside visit is the pub stop. Guests must be a minimum of 18 years to be served an Irish coffee. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible chair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of stamina before participating.

Portland, Uk

PTL-010 STONEHENGE AND CERNE ABBAS

Date: Jun 11, 2026 Time: 11:31 AM
Duration: 6.75 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW

Travel into the pastoral English countryside and be immersed in the mystery of two very famous and ancient sites. Deep in a grassy field in rural Wiltshire, Stonehenge's standing stones have puzzled visitors and scientists for centuries. Even your expert guide won't have definite answers as to how these astonishingly large stones – some 25 feet tall and weighing as many tons – were transported across great distances and manipulated into place 5,000 years ago. We know Stonehenge is aligned with the summer solstice and was built in phases, but beyond the few answers lie only more questions: who were these people, what was this place for, and what does it all mean? Maybe during your hour here you'll have an archeological epiphany and figure that out. Either way, you'll soon have another puzzling earthwork to contemplate, this one standing 180-feet tall on the slope of a Dorset hillside. The Cerne Abbas Giant is a chalk-outlined male figure carved into the bedrock centuries ago. We know he's male because he's naked enough to have long been revered as a symbol of fertility. Theories abound as to who created him, and why. Again, your guide has some answers – the rest you'll just have to work out for yourself.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Travel by coach into Wiltshire's rural fields to a sight that mystifies – and thrills – all who visit it.
- Follow your guide around Stonehenge and be amazed by the scale of these standing stones somehow transported and assembled here by prehistoric builders. Or was it aliens?
- Visit the site of a second barely-explained earthwork, this one an enormous naked male figure outlined in carved chalk on a hillside in Dorset.
- Ask all the questions you like; just don't expect very many definite answers on this outing.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear waterproof, weather-appropriate clothing.
- Flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen as needed.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour is primarily panoramic with mostly optional and limited walking at the stops. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible chair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them.

OVERVIEW

Settle back for a drive through pastoral Dorset to visit the dramatic ruins of Corfe Castle. Along the way, your guide will share background on the royal manor of Portland, the Jurassic Coast, and the seaside resort of Weymouth made famous when King George III selected it as a favored summer getaway in the late 18th century. Corfe Castle sports far older kingly heritage; originally built by order of William the Conqueror in 1080, it took its final form in the 14th century. But by the mid-1600s was reduced to the hilltop ruins that stand today as some of Britain's most impressive and romantic. Photos taken here could make the cover of any English calendar, and a climb up Corfe's steep, grassy rise rewards the hearty with spectacular views of the surrounding countryside. Older still is the sprawling hillfort site known as Maiden Castle, considered England's finest prehistoric fortification by many. Developed by a Stone Age community circa 2,000 BC, the site was used as a funeral mound during the Bronze Age before being taken by the Romans in 43 AD. A scenic drive south through Weymouth returns you to the 21st century and your waiting ship.

All of the home's richly furnished and decorated rooms retain their original period character and contents. Ample cross-connections to Thomas Hardy are here, as well. His father, a stonemason, was involved in restoration work to the Great Hall and West Wing in the 19th century, and young Thomas himself first visited Athelhampton at age 19.
