ITINERARY

July 28 Arrive in Copenhagen and transfer to the four-star Imperial Hotel Copenhagen. Spend the remainder of the day at leisure.

July 29 Enjoy breakfast, and set out on a half-day excursion of Copenhagen. See the Changing the Guard ceremony (schedule permitting) at Amalienborg Palace, a private residence of the royal family, and pass by Christiansborg Palace, the seat of the Danish parliament. You will also see the charming and colorful old harbor of Nyhavn, among other popular sights, before visiting beautiful Rosenborg Castle, home to the crown jewels. At tour conclusion, transfer to the 4-star Imperial Hotel Copenhagen and enjoy the remainder of the day at your leisure.

July 30 After breakfast, set out on a five-hour excursion, through farmland and small villages, to tour some of Roskilde's most prominent attractions. Explore the Viking Ship Museum, which contains the remains of five Viking vessels salvaged from the bottom of the Roskilde Fjord. Afterward, travel to the town square to visit Roskilde Cathedral. Constructed during the twelfth century, the twin-spired structure is the burial place of more than forty Danish monarchs, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and was the first cathedral to be built from brick—inspiring the spread of brick Gothic architecture throughout northern Europe.

As the tour comes to a close, transfer to Marina to embark on your cruise.

Imperial Hotel Copenhagen

Perfectly situated in the heart of Copenhagen and just minutes away from Tivoli Gardens, the four-star Imperial Hotel is an ideal place to stay during your visit. This hotel provides a welcoming atmosphere with its famous Danish design, modern art, and cozy accommodations. Enjoy a meal at one of its exceptional restaurants or relax around the open fire in the lounge.

Travelers should be confident in their ability to walk and stand for up to 2 hours with a total of up to 1 mile per day while keeping a steady pace with a group or tour guide. This tour can involve walking on mostly even terrain and occasionally stairs, some without handrails. Travelers should be able to board a tour coach or bus with minimal assistance.
