Those guests that are fully dependent on their mobility device please book: LRN-AC4 ACCESSIBLE PISA & MEDIEVAL LUCCA- Mobility Equipment Experience incredible medieval art and architecture in Pisa's glorious Field of Miracles and then explore more medieval treasures in the town Lucca. The guide will elaborate on the historical importance of this UNESCO World Heritage site while you take in its architectural beauty. In the nearby National Museum of San Matteo, you will see works of art from various ecclesiastical buildings throughout the province. Next, you will continue to Lucca, which the Romans founded in 180 BC. While little from that time remains, historical architecture is still the town's most outstanding feature, especially its remarkably intact Renaissance walls. CIV-WT1 WELLNESS - THERMAL BATHS OF THE POPES

Date: Jun 04, 2026 Time: 08:30 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $289.00

OVERVIEW

Travel to the ancient city of Viterbo, where thermal springs have been celebrated for their healing properties since the time of the Etruscans and Romans. In the lush countryside just west of the city center, you will experience Terme dei Papi, the "Thermal Baths of the Popes." While the baths were visited by a succession of popes in medieval times, they received their current name in the 15th century when Pope Nicholas V was so impressed by the curative effects of the waters that he had a grand palace built on the site, so he could stay there whenever he required treatment. The baths are fed by the Bullicame spring that has inspired artists and poets for centuries. Dante references the spring in his Divine Comedy, and Michelangelo sketched drawings of the beautiful landscape. The mineral-rich waters are forced through a miles-long fracture in the earth's crust by the pressure of carbonic gases. The salts, calcium, magnesium and other mineral compounds in the thermal waters make them highly valued for multiple therapeutic applications, including the treatment of respiratory ailments, bone and joint pain, and skin conditions. CRN-GG1 SIERRA ESPUNA REFORESTATION

Date: Jun 07, 2026 Time: 09:30 AM
Duration: 5.50 Hrs Price: $289.00

OVERVIEW

Explore the magnificent Sierra Espuña with a member of Association Bosqueo2, a group of conservationists dedicated to the reforestation of this now-protected natural park. Although it's hard to imagine today, the pine-forested park was nearly devoid of trees in the late 19th century, as its natural resources were heavily exploited. That began to change in 1889, when Cartagena native and forest engineer Ricardo Codorniu spearheaded a replanting program that continues more than 100 years later. While touring this environmentally sensitive area with a member of the association, you will see firsthand how Sierra Espuña has been transformed into pristine parkland full of indigenous flora and fauna. If the weather conditions are conducive, you will plant a tree as part of the reforestation efforts. However, if it's too dry for a newly planted tree to survive, you can opt for the association to plant one in your name later.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit a once-deforested area that has been transformed into a pine-clad natural park.
- Learn about the forester that inspired the transformation in the late 19th century.
- Plant a tree to contribute to the park's reforestation or sponsor a tree to be planted later.

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Price: $159.00

OVERVIEW

Discover how traditional ways are still practiced in the fishing village Pedregalejo, where you will learn how to grill sardines on an open fire. The fishermen of this village use wooden boats, known as jábegas, the origin of which dates to the Phoenician era. They have recently experienced a rebirth of sorts with rowing clubs using them in competitive events. Pedregalejo is also revered for its old-style beachfront restaurants known as chiringuitos. At one of the most popular chiringuitos, you will learn how to prepare espeto, which is barbecued fish, most often sardines. The fish are heavily seasoned with coarse sea salt and skewered on long flat bamboo sticks. They are then placed over an open fire of olive wood, which imparts an unmistakable flavor. If sardines are used, their silvery color will turn golden brown as they cook. Once the sardines are done, you can eat them with your fingers right off the skewer.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a panoramic drive up to Gibralfaro Castle with time for photo stop.
- Stop in a beachfront restaurant known as a chiringuito for a cooking demonstration.
- Watch fresh sardines being grilled over an open fire and eat them right off the skewer.

The Oceania Exclusive format is available on specially selected shore excursions in nearly every port we visit, around the world. Harken back to the glorious Age of Discovery in the harbor where intrepid sea-going explorers like Vasco de Gama set off from Portugal to parts unknown, visit a monastery built as a tribute to their wanderlust and stroll through Lisbon's historic Alfama section. At the old harbor, you'll find the fortified 16th-century Belém Tower, a welcome sight for hardy sea-going voyagers upon their return to Portugal after months at sea. Marvel at the magnificent Gothic Jerónimos Monastery, a UNESCO World Heritage site built to commemorate the explorer's adventures and considered the most elaborate expression of the Manueline style, a unique form of decoration punctuated with marine symbols such as ropes, shells and coral. Immerse yourself in the ancient history of Alfama, Lisbon's most iconic quarter, once a haven for Lisbon's poorest residents but now a trendy destination whose maze of narrow, cobbled streets lead to tiny plazas and unique shops. Enjoy some free time to wander on your own and soak in the centuries-old atmosphere, a perfect way to complete your own personal day of discovery.
