SPU-016 MOUNTAIN VILLAGE EXPERIENCE

Date: Oct 25, 2026 Time: 09:00 AM
Duration: 4.75 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW

Become immersed in Croatian culture by visiting a Dalmatian mountain village, where you will watch a folkloric performance and savor a traditional meal made with local ingredients. After departing from the pier, you will soon leave the urban environment of Split behind and head into the inland mountains of Croatia. The route will be winding, densely forested and wonderfully scenic, as the Dalmatian coast will occasionally come into view. The mountain landscape has changed little over the centuries, and in many ways traditional life has remained unaltered, as well. You will see that firsthand upon entering Radovici, a speck on the map that still celebrates an authentic Croatian village lifestyle. While walking through the streets, you may be offered a glass of local grappa and perhaps a taste of poljicki soparnik, a simply prepared vegetable pie made with onions and chard. The pie is so emblematic of this region that the Ministry of Agriculture has requested that the European Union proclaim it an official product of Croatia, which will protect it against knock-offs claiming to be poljicki soparnik. After exploring the village on foot, a full lunch awaits you at a local family farm. On the way there, you may enjoy participating in balota, a traditional Croatian bowling game similar to bocce in Italy. In keeping with the theme, lunch will consist of authentic local dishes, hearty soup, garden-fresh salad and dessert. As an accompaniment, a folkloric group will sing popular Dalmatian songs. Following this delightful and enlightening cultural experience, you will re-board your coach and transfer back to the pier. Please note: This tour includes approximately 1 hour of moderate walking. There will be some uneven terrain and steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and not considered suitable for those with walking difficulties. Weather appropriate clothing; sun cap; sunglasses; sunscreen; a bottle of water from the ship; and flat, sturdy walking shoes are recommended.

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $109.00

OVERVIEW
Behold the magnificent Baroque architecture throughout the city of Lecce, much of it built with a characteristic light-colored limestone that beautifully reflects sunlight. In Sant'Oronzo Square, you will see the ruins of a Roman amphitheater from the 2nd century AD. Despite being in the middle of Lecce, the amphitheater was forgotten for centuries and covered with rubble until the 1930s. Nearby stands a column that was moved from the city of Brindisi that once marked the end of the Appian Way. Many of the other architectural highlights in Lecce are religious in nature, including the Church of Santa Croce, whose façade is adorned with a dizzying array of sculpted figures, including dragons, angels, birds and flowers. OVERVIEW

Relish Sicily's historic winemaking traditions on this visit to a celebrated estate hugging the base of Mount Etna. You'll learn that after Tuscany and Piedmont, Sicily is Italy's third most sought-after food and wine destination, likely due to the distinct flavors imparted on the earth's bounty by the volcanic soil from Mount Etna, the smoldering volcano rising nearly 11,000 feet above the sea. Journey to the northeastern side of Mount Etna and find Linguaglossa, an attractive village where you'll enjoy a stop before continuing to the splendid Cottanera Estate, a renowned winery whose lands stretch up the northern foothills of the volcano to an altitude of about 2,300 feet above sea level. After touring the vineyard and the cellars, savor a tasting of the estate's wines, which may include reds crafted with autochthonous nerello Mascalese or cappuccio grapes and whites from the inzolia and carricante varietals, all accompanied by local delicacies. Raise a glass to Cottanera's skillful vintners and applaud the surprisingly sumptuous gifts of these lava-scarred lands.

- Pause in the photogenic hillside village of Linguaglossa.

NAP-005 HISTORIC HERCULANEUM

Date: Oct 30, 2026 Time: 09:45 AM
Duration: 3.50 Hrs Price: $179.00

OVERVIEW

Delve into the remains of Herculaneum, a UNESCO World Heritage site that, much like Pompeii, fell victim to Mount Vesuvius' reverberating AD 79 eruption, on this engaging tour that also takes you to a local craft center. You'll learn that Herculaneum's fate didn't quite mirror Pompeii's, since Pompeii was buried in hot volcanic ash that burned everything combustible, whereas Herculaneum was covered by scorching mud that serendipitously preserved the village and prevented looting throughout the centuries. In addition, you'll hear many of the citizens had already departed Herculaneum due to an earthquake that preceded the volcanic eruption by several years, so this city has none of the eerie body casts seen in Pompeii. During your guided tour, you might see upper-class Roman villas overlooking the sea, original statuary, inlaid marble floors, intricate wall mosaics and even carbonized wood artifacts that survived the horrific devastation, all of which provide an astonishing snapshot of life nearly 2,000 years ago. Cap off your illuminating outing with a visit to a craft center, proof that even Vesuvius' destructive outburst couldn't prevent this vibrant corner of Italy from flourishing.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Tour the eye-opening ruins of Roman-era Herculaneum, a UNESCO World Heritage site.
- See nearly intact buildings interred for centuries by a flow of scalding mud triggered by Mount Vesuvius' AD 79 eruption.
- Examine statues, inlaid marble floors, ornate mosaics and wooden items carbonized by the extreme heat.

- Shop for local crafts at a center where artisans proudly display their wares.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 3 hours of walking. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.

inspired artists and poets for centuries. Dante references the spring in his Divine Comedy, and Michelangelo sketched drawings of the beautiful landscape. The mineral-rich waters are forced through a miles-long fracture in the earth's crust by the pressure of carbonic gases. The salts, calcium, magnesium and other mineral compounds in the thermal waters make them highly valued for multiple therapeutic applications, including the treatment of respiratory ailments, bone and joint pain, and skin conditions. On the gorgeous estate of Terme dei Papi, relax in the splendid outdoor pool, which stretches over 20,000 square feet and is fed exclusively by the thermal waters of the famous Bullicame. The warm waters and soothing vapors provide the ultimate relaxation, relieving muscle tension, easing stress and nourishing your skin.
