project, which stretches nearly 150 miles across southern France using locks, aqueducts and tunnels. Riquet's intention was to connect the Mediterranean with the Bay of Biscay, allowing ships to avoid traveling around the Iberian Peninsula. UNESCO has declared the tree-lined canal a World Heritage site for being a technical wonder as well as a work of art. While meandering about Fonserannes following the cruise, you may see one of the canal's staircase locks. Other locks are in the medieval village of Beziers, where the canal intersects the Orb River. As you explore Beziers, you will see the remains of a Roman amphitheater and a 19th-century bull ring. You will also meander the leafy, shop-lined Riquet Alleyways, named for the engineer that was born here.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Cruise a stretch of the 17th-century Canal du Midi, which is still considered an engineering marvel.
- Gain insight into how the canal's advanced technology influenced the Industrial Revolution.
- Explore Beziers, a former Roman colony where the canal's revered engineer was born.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 2 hours of moderate walking/standing. Guest will need to manage some uneven and paved surfaces along with some inclines. There will be 1 step to enter/exit the canal boat and 2 steps at the restaurant. Please keep in mind the boats floor might be slippery. PLEASE NOTE

While the greatest care has been taken to offer the finest services available, Oceania Cruises will not be held responsible for any event or omission during the time that guests are not on board the ship or its tenders. All arrangements for certain optional off-board activities, including air transportation, hotel accommodations, ground transfers and shore excursions, are made by Oceania Cruises with the suppliers of the services for the convenience of our guests. Each guest agrees not to hold Oceania Cruises, its owners, employees, agents or representatives liable, in the absence of its own negligence, for any loss, injury, expense or damage which results directly or indirectly from any act or omission, whether negligent or otherwise, of any person or firm which provides any goods or services in connection with any optional travel component or any other option that is available for purchase. Arrangements with independent contractors include but are not limited to services, products and transportation provided elsewhere than on board an Oceania Cruises vessel in connection with tours, whether arranged or organized by tour operators, travel agents or Oceania Cruises. Tours, including hotel accommodations and transportation by any vessel not owned or operated by Oceania Cruises or by air, rail or land, are not under the supervision and control of Oceania Cruises. Notwithstanding that Oceania Cruises, at the guest's option, arranges air transportation, hotel accommodations, group transfers, shore excursions and other services with independent suppliers of the services, it should be understood that Oceania Cruises, being a "for profit entity," earns a fee on the sale of the optional services.

All Oceania Cruises shore excursion fares are per person, are subject to change and are subject to availability. Some tours are capacity controlled and may be withdrawn at any time without prior notice. While Oceania Cruises makes every effort to adhere to the specifics mentioned in each shore excursion description, circumstances may require otherwise. All shore excursion descriptions and information are subject to change without notice at Oceania Cruises' discretion. Oceania Cruises is not responsible or liable for typographical errors, omissions or misprints.
