PAU-010 DISCOVER SOULAC-SUR-MER AND THE WWII

BUNKERS Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 08:30 AM

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $209.00

OVERVIEW

Meander about the wonderfully atmospheric seaside town of Soulac-sur-Mer and admire the landmarks, which include bunkers that the occupying Germans built during World War II. Chances are, you will pass the Basilica of Our Lady of the End of the Lands, a UNESCO World Heritage site church in the heart of town. Soulac-sur-Mer is also known for its hundreds of colorful neo-colonial villas that were built in the 19th century. If you don't see them during the guided tour, be sure to take them in during free time. Nearby, you will find still-standing concrete bunkers that were part of Germany's coastal defense system known as the Atlantic Wall. Supposedly impenetrable, the wall was a 2,000-mile chain of fortresses and other defensive measures that included five million mines. Your guide will describe in fascinating detail how the bunkers were built, their weaponry and the efforts to protect the remaining bunkers from being dismantled.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Explore the seaside town of Soulac-sur-Mer with a guide and on your own.
- View attractions such as the town's UNESCO World Heritage site basilica.
- See concrete bunkers that were part of Germany's defensive Atlantic Wall in World War II.
- Gain insight into how the bunkers were built and why they failed to stop the Allied troops.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour requires a moderate amount of walking and participants should be in good physical condition. It is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The tour goes through the vineyards. There is no rain cover along the vineyard walk, so guests are recommended to bring an umbrella, boots, and a rain jacket in case of inclement weather.

Walk through the storied Margaux vineyards in the southernmost part of the Médoc wine region and savor a wine tasting and snack afterwards. To reach the starting point, you will drive along the famed Route des Châteaux that passes through many of the area's most acclaimed wineries. You will then enjoy a unique perspective of several estates and their vineyards on a leisurely walk through the Margaux region with a guide that will describe the characteristics of the wines produced there. Those wineries include the famed Château Margaux, Château Palmer and Château Rauzan-Ségla, which is owned by the family that controls the Chanel fashion and fragrance empire. Upon arriving at Château Marquis de Terme, you will snack on locally made chocolates, cheeses and a rum-flavored canelé cake. You will also sample several elegant Margaux red wines from the château, which is among those that earned a Grand Cru Classé designation for quality.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Drive through the storied Médoc-Margaux wine region along the Route des Châteaux.
- Walk past several of the region's most acclaimed estates and vineyards.
- Learn about the characteristics of the red wines produced in the Médoc-Margaux region.
- Sample several wines while snacking on locally produced delicacies.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour requires a moderate amount of walking and participants should be in good physical condition. It is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The tour goes through the vineyards. There is no rain cover along the vineyard walk, so guests are recommended to bring an umbrella, boots, and a rain jacket in case of inclement weather. Purchases for this tour must be made no later than 6 days prior to the scheduled operating day. There is a 100% cancellation penalty for cancellations made with less than six days' notice.

PAU-004 MEDOC WINE CHATEAUX ROAD

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 09:30 AM, 01:30 PM

OVERVIEW

Gain an understanding of wine production at a Grand Cru Classé estate and sample some of its most outstanding wines. To reach the estate, you will follow the Route des Châteaux that winds through the renowned Médoc wine region, where you will pass one flourishing vineyard after another. Along the way, you will pause for photos at Château Margaux, a legendary estate that was among the first to receive a Grand Cru Classé designation for the extraordinary quality of its wines. The guide will further explain the significance of this classification, which was created in 1855 at Napoleon's request. It takes into account factors such as the terroir, the elevation of the vineyards and the body of the wine. The estate that you will visit shares that classification. You will sample two of its finest wines – perhaps a red and a white varietal – and learn about their distinctive attributes.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Drive through the storied Médoc wine region along the Route des Châteaux.
- Stop for photos of the legendary wine estate Château Margaux.
- Tour another estate that earned a Grand Cru Classé designation for its superb wines.
- Sample two of the most characteristic wines that the estate produces.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 2 hours of walking. It is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The minimum age to participate in wine tasting is 21 years old. Flat and comfortable walking shoes are recommended. The order of the visit may vary.

PAU-005 FORT MEDOC & WINE TASTING AT CHTEAU LANESSAN

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 09:30 AM, 02:15 PM

OVERVIEW

Tour a 17th-century fort built to defend the strategically important Gironde Estuary and a historical château and vineyard, where you will enjoy a wine tasting. Perched on the left bank of the estuary, Fort Medoc was constructed of stone in 1690 and further protected by ditches that could be flooded in case of attack. It is one of a trio of forts around this section of the estuary, none of which were ever attacked. Fort Medoc was designed by Vauban, a military engineer that fought in every French war during the reign of Louis XIV and revolutionized the art of defensive fortifications. Now owned by the eighth generation of the Bouteiller family, Château Lanessan is also architecturally impressive as it is one of the oldest estates in Medoc countryside. The vineyards may be even more well known as the grapes that flourish in the exceptional terroir produce superb wines, several of which you will taste.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit a 17th-century fort that one of the greatest French military engineers built.
- Discover the strategic importance of Fort Medoc and why it has never been under siege.
- Explore a wine estate that has been in the same family for eight generations.
- Sample some of the extraordinary wines that Château Lanessan produces.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 2 hours of walking. It is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The minimum age to participate in wine tasting is 21 years old. Flat and comfortable walking shoes are recommended. The order of the visit may vary.

PAU-003 MOON HARBOUR WHISKY DISTILLERY

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 09:45 AM

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $249.00

OVERVIEW

Tour the first whisky distillery in Bordeaux and sample three of its distinctive spirits that best reflect the production process. The Moon Harbour distillery is named for its location on the Garonne River, which takes on a crescent-moon shape as it passes through town. That crescent is so symbolic that it appears on Bordeaux's coat of arms and on Moon Harbour's packaging. Since the distillery opened in 2014, Bordeaux has become revered its spirits as well as its wines. As you will discover, they are produced in a concrete bunker that the Germans built during World War II. While touring this unique facility, you will learn about the distilling process that uses locally sourced grains and how the whiskies are aged for at least three years in barrels that once held sauternes and red Grand Cru wines. It is a difference that you will taste during the sampling of Moon Harbour's whiskies.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit Bordeaux's first whisky distillery, which occupies a World War II concrete bunker.
- See how the whiskies are produced using local grains and then aged in the bunker.
- Sample three distinctly different whiskies from the Moon Harbour distillery.

HELPFUL HINTS

PAU-006 MEDOC VINEYARDS & WINE TASTING AT CHATEAUX LYNCH BAGES

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 2.50 Hrs Price: $279.00

OVERVIEW

Tour a nearby château in the Médoc wine region along the left bank of the Gironde Estuary and enjoy a tasting of its extraordinary wines. Located at the entrance of Pauillac, Château Lynch Bages has been producing wines since the early 1600s but it wasn't until the 19th century that new cultivation methods were adopted that greatly improved their quality. As such, in 1855 it gained the distinction of a Grand Cru Classé designation for its superior wines. While visiting the château, you will learn about the environmentally friendly vineyards, the various grape varieties grown there and how the viticulture continues to evolve. For instance, satellite-mapping tools are now used to better analyze each parcel's potential and determine the characteristic features of each terroir. Following this insightful look at the production methods of Château Lynch Bages, you will sample three of its esteemed wines. They will likely include red and white blends.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit Château Lynch Bages, which has been producing wines in Pauillac since the 1600s.
- Gain an understanding of how the château's wine production continues to evolve.
- Learn about the Grand Cru Classé designation that the château earned for quality.
- Sample some of the extraordinary wines that Château Lynch Bages produces.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, can make their way on and off the coach and have a companion to assist them. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The minimum age to participate in wine tasting is 21 years old. Flat and comfortable walking shoes are recommended. Purchases for this tour must be made no later than 6 days prior to the scheduled operating day. There is a 100% cancellation penalty for cancellations made with less than six days' notice.

PAU-007 EXCLUSIVE VISIT AT CHATEAUX LAFON ROCHET

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 2.00 Hrs Price: $279.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy an enlightening look at the 17th-century wine estate Château Lafon Rochet and sample several wines that showcase its extraordinary terroir. As you approach the estate in the surrounding Médoc wine region, you will first be struck by the signature golden yellow color of the buildings. It is as distinctive as the terroir that the winemaking team maximizes to its full potential. Since 1855, Château Lafon Rochet has held a Grand Cru Classé designation for the superior quality of its wines. More than 90% of the grapes are Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot, the others being Petit Verdot and Cabernet Franc. All of them are grown through organic techniques that preserve the fertility of the soil, prevent erosion and increase the biodiversity throughout the estate. The wines reflect that care and attention as you will discover during a tasting of three red blends and a special primeur wine sampled directly from the barrel.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit Château Lafon Rochet, which has been producing wines in Pauillac since the 1600s.
- Gain an understanding of how the production methods are becoming more organic.
- Learn about the Grand Cru Classé designation that the château earned for quality.
- Sample three red wines and a primeur wine straight from the barrel.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The minimum age to participate in wine tasting is 21 years old. Purchases for this tour must be made no later than 6 days prior to the scheduled operating day. PAU-008 VERTICAL TASTING AT CHATEAU PEDESCLAUX

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 2.00 Hrs Price: $319.00

OVERVIEW

See how Château Pédesclaux follows strict organic agricultural principles to produce its outstanding wines, which have earned the estate a Grand Cru Classé designation for quality. After acquiring the estate in 2019, the Lorenzetti family restructured the vineyards and introduced sustainable farming methods in an effort to better highlight the unique character of the Pauillac terroir. The architecture was updated as well with a gravity-fed winery that helps preserve the aromas of the grapes. You will learn much about the grapes' journey from harvest to barrel before settling in for a vertical tasting of five different vintages of the same type of wine. The sampling will demonstrate how the wine varies from year to year, especially in relation to variations in the weather. For instance, you may see how a dry or a cool year affects the taste of the winery's Fleur de Pédesclaux, a red blend made primarily from Cabernet Sauvignon grapes.

PAU-011 BIKE TOUR IN PAUILLAC

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 10:30 AM
Duration: 2.50 Hrs Price: $269.00

OVERVIEW

Pedal a bicycle through the heart of the Médoc wine region and through the backstreets of Pauillac for a remarkably comprehensive, up-close look at the area. After a test run to ensure that you are comfortable on the bike, you will pedal off through the surrounding vineyards. Along the way, you will enjoy unobstructed views of some of the region's most prestigious wineries. They include Château Pichon Baron, Château Grand-Puy-Lacoste and Château Pontet-Canet, all of which are designated as Grand Cru Classé for the quality of their wines. Château Mouton Rothschild may be even more well-known as it was elevated to First Growth status, a lofty designation that affirms that its wines are in a class by themselves. The bicycle route of about nine miles will also take you through sections of Pauillac that most visitors never see. A drink at a café on the estuary will make the trip all the more memorable.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ride a bicycle through many of the vineyards that distinguish the Médoc wine region.
- Pass châteaux with a Grand Cru Classé designation for the quality of their wines.
- See Château Mouton Rothschild, which earned a rare First Growth status for its wine.
- Pause for a beverage at a café along the estuary in Pauillac.

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour requires a moderate amount of activity and participants should be in good physical condition to take part in the bicycle ride. It is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The minimum age to participate this tour is 12 years old. Please be aware that guests are required to sign a waiver prior to participating. The order of the visit may vary. The tour is dependent on favorable weather conditions. If inclement weather occurs that could make the tour unsafe, the tour will not take place.

PAU-001 BASSINS DES LUMIERES

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 02:00 PM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $189.00

OVERVIEW

Become immersed in the world's most iconic artwork while walking through Les Bassins des Lumières, the world's largest digital art center. This audio-visual experience will be absolutely breathtaking as the art is projected onto the walls and watery basins in the floor of the building, which is a massive concrete submarine base that the Germans built in World War II to house U-boats. You will literally be surrounded by 360° masterpieces created by the likes of Vincent van Gogh, Claude Monet and Salvador Dalí. The monumental works of architects such as Antoni Gaudí have also been featured, as well as contemporary pieces that re-create space exploration and conceptual gardens. As you follow the walkways from room to room, the art will come alive as nothing is static. It will be emotionally moving as the art fills the space, a magical experience that a hundred video-projectors and thousands of digitized images make possible.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Walk through the world's largest digital art center, an experience unlike any other.
- Be awed as digitized artwork from the world's most famous artists surrounds you.
- Prepare to be emotionally moved as the experience is like being inside the artwork.
- Marvel at the art projected on water basins that once housed German U-boats.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, can make their way on and off the coach and have a companion to assist them. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. It is not recommended for children under 2 years old, as well as for individuals with epilepsy or sensitivity to light.

PAU-002 CITE DU VIN MUSEUM

Date: Sep 24, 2027 Time: 02:00 PM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $209.00

OVERVIEW

Learn more about wine that you ever thought possible at a museum that focuses entirely on wine. To reach La Cité du Vin, you will follow the Route des Châteaux that passes through the Médoc wine region along the left bank of the Gironde Estuary. Upon arriving at the museum, you will notice that the exterior is designed with shapes that evoke iconic symbols of Bordeaux such as a gnarled wine stock and wine swirling in a glass. The interior is just as breathtaking, as you will discover while exploring on your own. You might see how grape varieties have spread around the world, how climate affects cultivation and the process of transforming grapes into wine. Some of the art depicts favored methods of transporting wine over waterways, while other artistic expressions touch upon the importance of wine in religion. Fittingly, you will enjoy a glass of wine and the views from the building's 8th floor.

BIO-002 BILBAO AND GETXO

Date: Sep 25, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW

Appreciate the Basque region's architectural and engineering achievements at the seaside town of Getxo and appreciate highlights of Bilbao on this enlightening coach and walking tour. You'll delight in Getxo, an elegant residential town nestled at the mouth of the Nervión River boasting large, English-style manors. Enjoy a panoramic tour of Getxo as you make your way to the 1893 Vizcaya Bridge, a highly unusual hanging transporter bridge that has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. You'll admire its distinctive woven iron structure, reminiscent of the Eiffel Tower, as the bridge was designed by a Spanish disciple of the French master himself. Relish an opportunity to ride the passenger gondola to the other side of the river and back again. Journey to Bilbao's charming riverside of Nervion river and stop for photos at the swirling titanium and glass architecture of Frank Gehry's iconic Guggenheim Museum . Gaze in awe at this marvelous creation, which fractures the sunlight into an effervescent shimmer. As an exhilarating conclusion to your tour, catch glimpses of surrounding Bilbao from a magnificent viewpoint atop Artxanda Hill.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Uncover Getxo's aristocratic past on a coach tour past elegant English-style mansions.
- Admire the Vizcaya Bridge, a UNESCO World Heritage site featuring a suspended gondola.
- Take in marvelous vistas of Getxo and the Ría de Bilbao from atop the Vizcaya Bridge.
- Ascend Artxanda Hill for marvelous views of Bilbao and Frank Gehry's Guggenheim Museum.
- Stop for photos in front of the Guggenheim museum, the symbol of modern Bilbao

BIO-003 GUERNICA AND THE BISCAINE COAST

Date: Sep 25, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 5.50 Hrs Price: $209.00

OVERVIEW

Contemplate the Basque Country's tumultuous past at storied Guernica and visit seafaring Bermeo on this coach and walking tour. Travel along the scenic Basque coast for approximately two hours to Bermeo, home to a deep-sea fishing fleet which operates as far afield as the Azores and Southern Africa. You'll enjoy a walking tour as well as free time in this charming town, whose clutter of variously-hued vertical buildings pressed up against each other is distinctively Basque. After a brief photo stop at a lookout with marvelous views, arrive in Guernica, a town immortalized by Picasso in his iconic and unsparing large-scale painting. As powerfully depicted in this masterpiece, you'll learn the town was completely devastated on April 26, 1937 by German aircraft sent by Hitler to support fascist Francisco Franco's troops. See the petrified trunk of a symbolic oak tree that miraculously survived the bombing raid, and in the Park of Europe, view stirring sculptures denoting Guernica as a city of peace. Relish refreshments and an appetizer before visiting Casa de Juntas, home to the Province of Vizcaya's parliament and an eloquent symbol of this proud region's remarkable renaissance.

HIGHLIGHTS

- View the fishing village of Bermeo on a walking tour of its picturesque mélange of colorful buildings.
- Admire the beguiling landscape of the Basque coastline from a scenic lookout.
- Ponder the destruction of Guernica by German warplanes on a visit to the town depicted in Picasso's masterpiece.
- Gaze at Guernica's petrified oak tree, a powerful Basque symbol that survived the Nazi assault.
- Visit the neoclassical Casa de Juntas, where the Province of Vizcaya's parliament meets.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately two hours of easy-to-moderate walking. There will be some hills to negotiate. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. There will be no Parliament visit if a session is in progress. The order of the sites viewed or visited may vary.

BIO-019 TXAKOLI WINERY & BASQUE GASTRONOMY

Date: Sep 25, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $279.00

OVERVIEW

Tour a winery known for producing premium Txakoli wine and then dine on traditional Basque cuisine in a 19th-century country house that has been converted into a restaurant. Txakoli is a slightly fizzy wine made from the native Hondarribi grape that flourishes in the Basque terroir. Most Txakoli is white wine, but there are red varieties. As you will discover during the tasting, this delicate wine is typically poured into flat-bottomed glasses from a height of no more than eight inches to preserve its natural effervescence. Continuing on, you will pause for photos of San Juan de Gaztelugatxe, an islet so visually dramatic that it was chosen as a location for the HBO series Game of Thrones. You will dine in "Puente Colgante" Restaurant. Basque cuisine is based on high quality products with good raw materials. Fresh fish and shellfish from the Cantabrian Sea, legumes, vegetables from their gardens and meat from their livestock are the main ingredients in their gastronomy culture. A traditional recipes that are passed from generation to generation and the passion of the Basques for their local products. Therefore, on this tour we will be able to taste the cuisine of the popular Chef Zuriñe García, trained at the Galdakao Hospitality School and nowadays the Chef in charge of Puente Colgante Restaurante. In her early years, this strong woman was trained in each of the kitchen games, soaking up all the knowledge while she expanded her academic training. With a lot of work and effort, in 2004, her passion for the great product of Basque cuisine, fish, was rewarded and she became the Head of the Fish Department. But in 2010 was the turning point in her career, Zuriñe García would become one of the few female haute cuisine restaurant chefs in charge of a Michelin Star restaurant.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Tour a winery and sample Txakoli wine made from the most prominent Basque country grape.
- Admire the spectacular view of the islet San Juan de Gaztelugatxe from an elevated lookout.
- Dine on traditional Basque cuisine at Puente Colgante Hotel.

HELPFUL HINTS

BIO-020 TRADITIONAL BASQUE CUISINE IN SAN ROQUE ABBEY

Date: Sep 25, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $279.00

OVERVIEW

Explore the medieval town of Balmaseda as a prelude to dining at a former convent that grows its own organic produce. As you meander about the town's historic quarter, you will notice that the buildings have been so beautifully preserved that it is easy to imagine life there in medieval times. Highlights include several Gothic churches and the 12th-century stone bridge that spans the Cadagua River and leads to the Cristo neighborhood. The towering turret on the bridge was built to guard the entrance to Balmaseda. Nearby, you will find San Roque, a 17th-century convent that has been repurposed as a hotel and restaurant. The dining room couldn't be more atmospheric for your lunch of traditional Basque cuisine. It may include micuit foie gras, leek and prawn cake and beef loin on braised sweet potato. Red wine from Rioja will also be served.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Explore the medieval town of Balmaseda independently and at your own pace.
- Cross the 12th-century bridge that connects Old Town Balmaseda to a residential area.
- Dine on traditional Basque cuisine in a former 17th-century convent.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

PLEASE NOTE This tour includes approximately 1 hour of walking and standing, plus any additional walking at the guests' discretion during free time. The village and San Roque Abbey are paved, however there may be additional sections unpaved. The sights on this tour are wheelchair

BIO-015 PANORAMIC BILBAO

Date: Sep 25, 2027 Time: 10:15 AM
Duration: 3.00 Hrs Price: $119.00

OVERVIEW

View the modern architectural landmarks of Bilbao both up close and from an ideal hilltop viewpoint on this illuminating tour. Journey to the 1893 Vizcaya Bridge, a UNESCO World Heritage site that spans the mouth of the Nervión River. You'll marvel at this feat of engineering, a highly unusual hanging transporter bridge that uses a suspended gondola to shuttle travelers back and forth across the river. Admire its distinctive woven iron structure, reminiscent of the Eiffel Tower, as the bridge was designed by a Spanish disciple of the French master himself. You'll drive to a magnificent viewpoint atop Artxanda Hill, where a dazzling panorama of Bilbao and the Nervión River unfolds before you. Descend into the city and alight at the Guggenheim Museum, an architectural masterpiece clad in swooping titanium plates and curving glass panes that is the pure, unmistakable signature of architect Frank Gehry. Gaze in awe at this marvelous creation, which fractures the sunlight into an effervescent shimmer. You'll relish free time to stroll the museum's grounds, perhaps encountering large-scale sculptures by Louise Bourgeois, Jeff Koons and Yves Klein as you ponder Bilbao's well-earned role as one of the world's cultural hubs.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Admire the Vizcaya Bridge, a UNESCO World Heritage site featuring a suspended gondola.
- Ascend Artxanda Hill for marvelous views of Bilbao and the sinuous Nervión River.
- Marvel at the swirling titanium and glass architecture of Frank Gehry's iconic Guggenheim Bilbao.
- Wander the museum's grounds, dotted with monumental sculptures by contemporary artists.

BIO-WT1 WELLNESS - HEALTHY STROLL ALONG THE CLIFFS AND GETXO

Date: Sep 25, 2027

Time: 11:00 AM

Duration: 4.00 Hrs

Price: $169.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy an invigorating four-mile walk, starting at Gorrondatxe Beach and continuing on to a fishing village that reflects the Basque way of life. You can expect it to be an inspiring experience as you will follow a picturesque coastal path past cliffs with Lutetian-era strata that geologists often study. You will also pass attractions such as the 18th-century Aixerrota Windmill, which has been converted into a restaurant. Seeing this landmark up close may conjure up images of Miguel de Cervantes' beloved character Don Quixote jousting with windmills that he imagines to be hostile giants. La Galea Fort is another attraction along the route. Built not long after Aixerrota Windmill, the fort is the area's only remaining example of military construction from the 18th century. You will next visit Getxo's old port of Algorta. As you walk through this enchanting fishing village, the guide will explain many of the Basque traditions and characteristics of the architecture.

- HIGHLIGHTS
- Take a brisk walk along a geologically important cliff-lined beach to a fishing village.
 - Pass several remarkable 18th-century attractions, including a windmill and a fortress.
 - Gain insight into the Basque way of life in the fishing village of Getxo.
 - Enjoy free time in Getxo, where you might enjoy a plate of tapas on your own.

- HELPFUL HINTS
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
 - Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes about 4½ miles of walking over paved even and uneven terrain. It is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns should evaluate their ability and stamina before joining the tour.

LCO-012 GALICIAN FOOD & ITS MARKETS

Date: Sep 26, 2027 Time: 11:30 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $169.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy a panoramic driving tour through La Coruña with an enlightening stop at a market that offers many of the ingredients that will be found in your lunch. While traveling through the historical seaside port, you will notice that many of the buildings boast glass-enclosed balconies called “galerías,” the reason La Coruña is called “Crystal City.” Even so, the Tower of Hercules stands as the city’s most-recognized symbol, as this UNESCO World Heritage site is the only fully preserved Roman lighthouse still used for maritime signaling. Browsing one of the many local food markets will offer another perspective of the city. You will see locals shopping for traditional ingredients, especially Galician seafood. A meal that includes freshly caught octopus awaits you at A Pulpeira La Penela, a casual tavern-style restaurant in the heart of the city. Galician octopus is remarkably tender and typically flavored with olive oil and Spanish paprika.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Settle in for a driving tour of La Coruña and pass highlights such as the Tower of Hercules.
- Browse a bustling food market that especially reflects the bounty of local seafood.
- Dine on a traditional Galician lunch that features octopus, a local specialty.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing .
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes .

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately 1 hour of moderate walking over mainly even surfaces with some steps to negotiate. It is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested.

LCO-014 CITY SIGHTS, BEER & CHEESE

Date: Sep 26, 2027 Time: 11:30 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $299.00

OVERVIEW

OVERVIEW Settle in for an immensely panoramic drive along La Coruña’s beautiful coastline with stops to snap photos and to enjoy a beer-and-cheese pairing. Some of the city’s finest beaches rim Orzán Cove and you may spot surfers there because the waves are often high. If you look at the peninsula directly across the cove, you will see the Tower of Hercules, a still-operational lighthouse whose foundation dates to Roman times. The beacon is so impressive that UNESCO deemed it a World Heritage site. Besides scenic beauty, La Coruña boasts Spain’s first beer museum, which is entirely devoted to Estrella Galicia beer. As you browse the MEGA Museum, you might pause at the virtual-reality exhibits that depict the history of beer, the Estrella brewing process and the ingredients that give the various beers their unique flavors. You will sample a flight of five of those brews thoughtfully paired with local cheeses.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a panoramic coastal drive that presents many of La Coruña’s premier attractions.

- See the Tower of Hercules, a UNESCO World Heritage site lighthouse.
- Browse the virtual-reality exhibits at Spain’s first museum devoted to beer.
- Sample a flight of Estrella Galicia beers paired with cheeses at the museum.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

PLEASE NOTE Any allergies must be noted when booking the tour. Coaches do not have a lift, and entering and exiting must be done via stairs. This tour includes some walking and standing. LCO-016 SANTIAGO COMPOSTELA: MYTHS, LEGENDS & QUEIMADA EXPERIENCE

Date: Sep 26, 2027 Time: 11:30 AM
Duration: 6.00 Hrs Price: $419.00

OVERVIEW

Learn about the dark mysteries associated with Santiago Compostela on a walk through Old Town before consuming a drink that supposedly wards off evil spirits. While following the guide from Plaza de Cervantes – the square where prisoners were hanged until the late 16th century – you will hear hair-raising stories about this pilgrimage city where Saint James is said to be buried in the cathedral. Those tales may revolve around the saint or include the legend of the ghostly pilgrim whose shadow appears on the cathedral walls most every night. To protect you from supernatural spirits, you will drop by a tavern to sample queimada, an alcoholic punch often prepared in a hollowed-out pumpkin during a ritual in which the drink is ignited and a spell is recited. You will have much to discuss over a light meal at the gothic-style Parador hotel, which occupies a former hostel for pilgrims that was founded in 1499.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Walk through Santiago Compostela at night.
- Hear mysterious legends about Old Town that you may find disturbing but in a fun way.
- Watch the preparation of a drink said to protect you from evil spirits and then sample it.
- Enjoy a light dinner at a hotel that was a hostel for pilgrims starting in the 15th century.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes a moderate amount of walking. It is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair due to cobblestone surface. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.

LCO-008 LA CORUNA THROUGH THE EYES OF PICASSO

Date: Sep 26, 2027 Time: 12:00 PM

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Price: $129.00

OVERVIEW

Walk in the footsteps of a young Picasso by visiting the home where his family lived when Pablo was in his early teens. The family moved to La Coruna in 1891, when Pablo's father became an instructor at a fine arts school. Their apartment at 4 Rúa Payo Gómez has been preserved much like it was, with period furnishings and replicas of art work that Pablo created at the time. You can see glimpses of Pablo's genius in the paintings, drawings and caricatures, which are quite advanced considering his age. The family left for Barcelona after four years, when young Conchita Picasso died of diphtheria in the home. As you walk through La Coruna, you will see neighborhoods and attractions that teenage Pablo would have known such as the inspiring Méndez Núñez Gardens, an urban oasis that opened in 1871. Later, you can explore further on your own in the heart of the city.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit the home where teenager Pablo Picasso lived for four years with his family.
- View replicas of painting and drawings that Picasso created while living in the home.
- Walk through La Coruna while the guide points out attractions Picasso would have known.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

VGO-006 SANTIAGO DISCOVERY AND GALICIAN TAPAS

Date: Sep 27, 2027 Time: 09:00 AM
Duration: 8.00 Hrs Price: $269.00

OVERVIEW

Spend the day in cosmopolitan Santiago de Compostela, which gained fame in medieval times as a pilgrimage site for the faithful who came to visit the tomb of Saint James. Depart from the pier and begin driving into Spain's northwestern interior to Santiago de Compostela, a city so architecturally rich it's now deemed a World Heritage Site. The marquee attraction is undeniably the Cathedral, home to the relics of Saint James. Despite its Baroque façade, the cathedral boasts a spectacular predominately Romanesque interior. It took more than 150 years to build, finally being completed in 1211. There are so many inspiring features, including the largest cloisters in Spain, a sacred carving where countless pilgrims have worn five deep indentations in the marble with their fingers, and of course the silver coffer that holds the saint's relics. Four magnificent squares surround the Cathedral, and you'll have time to explore them in detail, as part of your guided walking tour and then on your own. The squares are graced by fountains, framed by historic buildings, and replete with shops. No matter where you venture in Santiago de Compostela, the setting is phenomenal. That is especially true of the historic hotel where you'll enjoy a delicious Galician tapas experience, sampling a variety of regional small plates that highlight the culinary heritage of Galicia. In fact, the luxurious Parador de los Reyes Catolicos is a Spanish national monument and considered to be the world's oldest hotel. After your tapas experience, you will have free time to enter the Cathedral on your own, or continue exploring the historic heart of Santiago at your leisure. When the time comes, enjoy a scenic and relaxing drive back to the pier.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Relish an opportunity to tour transcendent Santiago de Compostela, a UNESCO World Heritage site.
- View glorious landmarks spanning 700 years of architectural styles in Plaza del Obradoiro.
- Gaze at the magnificent 11th-century Romanesque cathedral erected over the apostle Saint James' tomb.

VGO-002 CASTLE SOUTOMAIOR & WINE CELLAR

Date: Sep 27, 2027 Time: 09:30 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $179.00

OVERVIEW

Appreciate Galicia's multilayered character on a visit to imposing Soutomaior Castle and a tasting at a winery that grows a distinctly aromatic grape. Travel inland toward the town of Soutomaior, best known for its formidable fortress, which was originally constructed in the 12th century. You'll learn it was extensively rebuilt in the 15th century under the iron-fisted rule of Pedro Madruga, a feudal lord infamous for his cruelty during revolts that pitted peasants against the Galician nobility and clergy. Enter through a still-operational drawbridge and enjoy an hour of free time to roam this impeccably preserved historic site, which is surrounded by beautiful gardens of native flora, including several 800-year-old chestnut trees. Deeper in the Pontevedra province, you'll find the esteemed Bodega Granbazan, a winery housed in a magnificent powder-blue manor that produces some of Spain's finest white wine from delicate albariño grapes. During your tasting of three different vintages, discern albariño's distinctive citrus perfume with floral and almond notes. You'll relish an opportunity to purchase your own selection of bottles, an enticing memento of this captivating land.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Relish an hour of free time to explore Soutomaior Castle, an impressive 12th century fortification.
- Visit the grand Bodega Granbazan, a winery renowned for its superlative albariño grapes.
- Savor a tasting of three distinct albariño vintages and relish an opportunity to shop for your own selections.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

VGO-001 VIGO HIGHLIGHTS & BAIONA

Date: Sep 27, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM, 10:30 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW

Enjoy enlightening visits to historic Vigo and nearby Baiona, two distinctly Galician seaports connected by an exceptionally scenic coastal road. Journey south along the picturesque Galician coastline to the resort city of Baiona, where Christopher Columbus' caravel Pinta first delivered news of the discovery of the New World. You'll overlook Baiona's yacht-dotted harbor from imposing Monterreal Fortress, whose well-preserved ramparts perch atop a wooded promontory. Enjoy free time to explore the scenic setting, perhaps seeking out the outstanding Austrian coat of arms on the Royal Gate or the distinctive cannons on wooden trolleys lining the battlements. Return to Vigo, a strategically located Galician city that was instrumental in twice repelling the English sea captain Sir Francis Drake in the late 1580s. You'll delight in lovely Castrelos Park, a 17th-century formal garden that surrounds the graceful pazo, or manor, rising in its midst. Enjoy a serene hour to roam the splendid grounds, which are sprinkled with fountains, monuments and swan-filled ponds. You'll gain a new appreciation for Galicia's aristocratic heritage on this tour of its illustrious landmarks.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Travel to the resort town of Baiona along the gorgeous Galician coastline.
- Relish free time to survey superb Monterreal Fortress, a nearly intact walled castle overlooking Baiona's harbor.
- Spend an hour wandering Vigo's lovely Castrelos Park, an exquisite 17th-century formal garden.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately two hours of moderate to strenuous walking/standing, plus any additional walking at the guests' discretion during free time. There will be some inclines and uneven surfaces to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary.

VGO-003 PONTEVEDRA & COMBARRO

Date: Sep 27, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW

Discover two historic towns renowned for their distinctive architecture, Pontevedra, with its lovely churches, and Combarro, famed for its intriguing stone granaries. Make your way to extraordinary Pontevedra, where you'll view the 14th-century ruins of the Convent of Santo Domingo, the 15th-century Convent of San Francisco and the marvelous Santa María la Mayor Basilica, commissioned by a guild of sailors in the 16th century. Appreciate the contrasting village of Combarro, located along what is known as the Horreos Coastline because of its abundance of small, raised granaries known as horreos. You'll learn these fascinating Baroque-style stone buildings were built on stilts to protect the grain and corn inside from moisture and animals. Relish more than an hour meandering through the village, an immensely charming tangle of narrow streets lined with medieval buildings that feature delicately hewn stonework and sunny balconies. As you return to your ship along a scenic coastal route, you'll ponder the captivating industry and ingenuity of the Galician people.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit the extraordinary churches of Pontevedra, including the ornate Santa María la Mayor Basilica.
- Study Combarro's inspired horreos, elevated granaries with charming ornamental motifs.
- Delight in more than an hour of free time to wander Combarro's beguiling warren of medieval streets.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour includes approximately two hours of moderate walking/standing. There will be some steps and uneven surfaces to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. The order of sites viewed or visited may vary.

VGO-005 THE BORDER COUNTRY

Date: Sep 27, 2027 Time: 10:30 AM
Duration: 4.00 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW

Explore two historic sister cities lying across a river from each other on the border between Spain and Portugal, the former Roman settlement of Tui and ancient Valença do Minho. Discover extraordinary Tui, a charming village dominated by a fortified hilltop cathedral. You'll appreciate the commanding 12th-century walls, a necessity as the city suffered frequent invasion attempts throughout the centuries. You'll see Tui's spectacular Renaissance chapels, including one bearing a beautiful Portuguese-influenced façade, and enjoy a closer look at the remains of the ancient city walls. Directly across the river in Portugal, explore the wonderful hamlet of Valença do Minho, another frequent target of raids by barbarians, Arabs and the French, among others. Wander through the atmospheric Old Quarter during free time, perhaps capturing photos of the city's picturesque defensive walls. You'll find Valença's artisanal traditions provide excellent shopping, especially for items such as pottery, linen and crockery. You'll understand Spain and Portugal's inextricably linked histories on this immensely enlightening tour.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit both Spain and Portugal on this tour of two medieval villages straddling the border.
- View the Cathedral of Tui, a walled place of worship that is a fascinating hybrid of castle and church.

Oporto, Portugal

OPO-018 BUZZING AROUND IN PORTO

Date: Sep 28, 2027 Time: 08:00 AM

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $449.00

OVERVIEW

Ride around Porto in an open-air tuk-tuk that will allow you to become immersed in the rhythms of the city, especially while stopping to sample local dishes and beverages. The tuk-tuk – a three-wheeled rickshaw of sorts for just four passengers – will offer a unique perspective of the landmarks, which include the two UNESCO World Heritage sites: the vibrant Ribeira neighborhood at distance and Serra do Pilar. The latter is a monastery where you will enjoy codfish fritters and a young white wine known as vinho verde. A tasting of port, the famed fortified wine named for Oporto, will follow at a nearby winery. The ports will likely be an aromatic white and a ruby reserve thoughtfully paired with local cheeses. Two ultimate views of the city await you; the first while sipping a cocktail on the rooftop bar overlooking D.Luis I bridge and Ribeira district, the second while enjoying an egg custard pastry at the Santa Catarina lookout.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ride around Oporto in a three-wheeled, open-air vehicle known as a tuk-tuk.
- See a medieval neighborhood and a monastery, both UNESCO World Heritage sites.
- Sample local specialties that include codfish fritters, cheeses and a classic egg custard tart.
- Enjoy a tasting of ports, the fortified wines that are named for Oporto.
- Admire panoramic views of Oporto from a rooftop bar and a scenic lookout.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable non-slip walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

Due to the nature of this tour, it is only available for guests 21 and over. Tour is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Tuk- tuk suspension is not soft as it goes through cobblestone streets of old town and it is not recommended at all for people with any sort of back problems. Weight restrictions can be applied for guests weighing more than 118Kg (260lbs). Porto is undergoing street works. Road closures or traffic changes without prior notice are conceivable.

OPO-003 THE CHARMING MINHO PROVINCE

Date: Sep 28, 2027 Time: 08:30 AM

Duration: 7.00 Hrs Price: $309.00

OVERVIEW

Explore one of Portugal's most fascinating provinces and enjoy lunch and shopping. Ride through picturesque Guimarães, whose town center was honored as a UNESCO World Heritage site almost two decades ago. You'll also tour the city on foot with a guide who will point out its well-preserved medieval landmarks before you enjoy time on your own. Travel to beautiful Braga and discover one of the region's most well-known sites, the breathtaking Bom Jesus do Monte sanctuary. Bask in the majesty of the twin-towered church, a masterpiece of European Baroque architecture. Notice that its spectacular stairway is flanked by several smaller chapels which represent the Stations of the Cross, and though a funicular provides access to the church, perhaps choose to climb the 17 flights of magnificent steps, enjoying the splendid architecture surrounding you. After lunch at a charming local restaurant, you'll marvel at the imposing Braga Cathedral, outfitted with two massive gilded organs, soaring vaulted arches and a lovely 16th-century statue of the Madonna. Learn more about Braga on a guided walking tour of the city center and appreciate time to shop before you conclude your scenic visit to some of Portugal's most captivating historical highlights.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Embark on a guided walking tour of the medieval landmarks of Guimarães.
- Relish free time to explore the town center, a UNESCO World Heritage site.
- Visit Braga and discover the acclaimed Bom Jesus do Monte sanctuary and a stunning cathedral.

HELPFUL HINTS

OPO-010 OPORTO HOP ON HOP OFF TOUR & WINE TASTING

Date: Sep 28, 2027 Time: 08:30 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $99.00

OVERVIEW

View Oporto's most captivating attractions and stay as long as you wish by hopping on and off double-decker buses as they make continuous loops around the city. Two separate routes with dozens of stops are offered, one with a more historical focus, the other along a road that follows the Douro River and up the coast. Together, they present a complete picture of Oporto's charms. You might stop at the Casa da Música concert hall, the Sé Cathedral. Oporto lies in an area that has been occupied since the 8th century BC, so there are plenty of historical sites, including the Ribiera district. It's the oldest section of town and so culturally and architecturally important that UNESCO deemed it a World Heritage site. As a bonus, a tasting of port wine is included if you stop at Quinta Boeira.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ride a bus around Oporto, stopping at the attractions that you find most appealing.
- Stay as long as you like in each attraction to enhance your understanding of it.
- Hop on another bus whenever you please and ride it to another intriguing destination.

- Use the provided route maps and headphones to easily plan your exploration.

HELPFUL HINTS

OPO-019 EXQUISITE LUNCH WITH THE COUNTESS

Date: Sep 28, 2027 Time: 08:30 AM
Duration: 7.00 Hrs Price: $299.00

OVERVIEW

Dine with a countess at her exquisite estate in the lush Douro Valley and come away with a greater appreciation for Portuguese cuisine and aristocratic life in the country. The valley is revered for its idyllic landscapes, extraordinary wines and fabulous foods, all of which you will enjoy at Casa da Várzea. The countess will personally greet you and show you around the handsomely decorated estate and beautifully manicured grounds. She will also regale you with stories about the history of the estate and her family heritage. Feel free to ask questions as the countess is happy to candidly discuss most any topic. Once you sit down to dine, the countess will tell you about the meal that she has prepared using locally sourced ingredients. The exact menu tends to vary with the season, but you can be sure that it will reflect the fecundity of the Douro Valley.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Settle in for a spectacularly scenic drive into the Douro Valley wine region.
- Enjoy a personal tour of a historical estate led by the countess who owns it.
- Dine with the countess on a delightful lunch that she has prepared for you.
- Engage in lively conversation with the countess throughout your visit.

OPO-005 RIVERFRONT TRAM RIDE & RIBEIRA QUARTER WALKDate: Sep 28, 2027 Time: 09:15 AM*Duration: 3.50 Hrs Price: $179.00*OVERVIEW

A half-hour transfer by bus brings you to Passeio Alegre, a lovely garden that graces the point where the Douro River meets the Atlantic Ocean. Here you will board the tramway, which dates from the early 20th century, for a memorable ride along the riverfront. Take in beautiful views of the river and discover old sections of town that offer a glimpse into the past, when fishermen predominately lived here, and locals took this tramway to the beach for summer's day of relaxation and fun in the sun. You will nibble on a typical snack and sample some wine onboard the tram. The next part of your outing takes place in the medieval Porto - Ribeira Quarter. A walk through the enchanting streets gives you an intimate look at this historic part of town before taking advantage of free time to wander this interesting area on your own. Be sure to notice the 19th-century iron bridges in the distance and the traditional Rabelo boats clustered around the pier. They were once used to transport casks of port wine from the Douro Valley to the cellars in Gaia. En route to your ship, fascinating sights continue to unfold.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit Passeio Alegre, a charming garden at the intersection of the Douro River and the Atlantic Ocean.
- Take a tram along the riverfront for a unique glimpse at an area once dominated by the fishing industry.
- Walk through Ribeira, the historical heart of Oporto and a UNESCO World Heritage site.
- See traditional rabelo boats, once used to move port wine.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

PLEASE NOTE

PLEASE NOTE: As this excursion involves approximately 30 minutes of walking over sometimes uneven and cobbled surfaces, it is not recommended for guests with walking difficulties. It is recommended that guests dress in casual clothing and wear flat, comfortable shoes. This excursion will operate in all weather conditions.

OPO-014 THE ARCHITECTURE OF PORTO

Date: Sep 28, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $279.00

OVERVIEW

View a collection of architectural treasures that have dramatically changed the face of Porto, a city founded in the 12th century. The tour begins right at the Leixões cruise terminal. A modern masterpiece clad with hexagonal ceramic tiles, it looks like a giant ribbon looping around itself in an irregular tangle. Similarly, the white-concrete Casa da Música concert hall features a striking modern design, but one that is highly geometric rather than free-form. Although the esteemed Museum Serralves displays contemporary art, it was designed to integrate with the surrounding urban area rather than make a bold statement. While exploring other districts of Porto, you may see buildings that feature a traditional early 20th-century style known as Portuguese Suave, quaint Swiss-style cottages and stately Beaux-Arts buildings. The architectural diversity is remarkable. Even Nogueira's, the restaurant that will host your lunch, is revered for its design, which exudes comfort and hospitality.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a panoramic driving tour of Porto that focuses on its most striking architecture.
- See a variety of architectural styles ranging from modern to traditional Portuguese Suave.
- Dine in a contemporary restaurant designed with rich woods and atmospheric lighting.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing .
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes .

Date: Sep 28, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 4.50 Hrs Price: $279.00

OVERVIEW

Dine on traditional Portuguese dishes at a family-owned restaurant followed by a panoramic tour of the city's most historical district. The venue for this gastronomical experience will be Postigo do Carvão, a restaurant that opened nearly four decades ago. The latter is such a signature dish in Porto that residents are nicknamed "tripeiros" for their love of tripe. Portuguese white wines from the Dão region and reds from the Douro region will be served to complement the dishes. The restaurant lies in the heart of the Clérigos district, home to the Clérigos Tower, once the highest building in Portugal. You can also expect to see the rococo-style Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, an 18th-century landmark that is especially revered for the blue and white azulejo tiles that adorn its exterior walls.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy a traditional Portuguese meal in a family-owned restaurant in the Clérigos district.
- Sample a selection of Portuguese white and red whites that pair well with the dishes.
- See what was once Portugal's highest building while driving through the Clérigos district.
