Duration: 9.00 Hrs Price: $309.00

OVERVIEW

Survey the astounding remains of Pompeii and Herculaneum, beautifully preserved Roman cities designated UNESCO World Heritage sites, and enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. Journey approximately 2 ½ hours to Herculaneum, whose fate didn't quite mirror that of better-known Pompeii, since the catastrophic Mount Vesuvius eruption of AD 79 covered it not in ash but in scorching mud, which serendipitously preserved the village. You might visit Roman villas featuring original statuary, inlaid marble floors and even carbonized wood artifacts. If accessible, admire an intricate mosaic at Casa di Nettuno e Anfitrite that still boasts intense color and vivid depictions of deities adorning private baths and fountains. At the two-story Casa dei Cervi, see paintings and furnishings that reveal the once-extravagant lifestyle of the town's residents. After lunch at a local restaurant, continue to fabled Pompeii, which was buried under 30 feet of ash and pumice. As you walk through the remains of the forum, private homes and shops, marvel at frescoes and mosaics adorning largely intact villas, and observe everyday objects scattered about as well as the haunting plaster casts of victims who were overcome by volcanic fumes, eternal residents of a city where time stood still.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Visit the remarkably well-preserved remains of Pompeii and Herculaneum, UNESCO World Heritage sites.
- Tour Herculaneum's nearly intact buildings, which were interred by a flow of scalding mud triggered by Mount Vesuvius' AD 79 eruption.

SRT-018 THE ANCIENT ROMAN RIVIERA: HERCULANEUM
Date: Oct 19, 2027 Time: 08:30 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW

Delve into the remains of Herculaneum, a UNESCO World Heritage site that, much like Pompeii, fell victim to Mount Vesuvius' reverberating AD 79 eruption, on this engaging tour that also takes you to a local craft center. Enjoy a scenic journey by coach to ill-fated Herculaneum, whose fate didn't quite mirror Pompeii's, since Pompeii was buried in hot volcanic ash that burned everything combustible, whereas Herculaneum was covered by scorching mud that serendipitously preserved the village and prevented looting throughout the centuries. In addition, you'll hear many of the citizens had already departed Herculaneum due to an earthquake that preceded the volcanic eruption by several years, so this city has none of the eerie body casts seen in Pompeii. During your guided tour, you might see upper-class Roman villas overlooking the sea, original statuary, inlaid marble floors, intricate wall mosaics and even carbonized wood artifacts that survived the horrific devastation, all of which provide an astonishing snapshot of life nearly 2,000 years ago. Cap off your illuminating outing with a visit to a woodworking center, proof that even Vesuvius' destructive outburst couldn't prevent this vibrant corner of Italy from flourishing.

HIGHLIGHTS
• Tour the eye-opening ruins of Roman-era Herculaneum, a UNESCO World Heritage site.
• See nearly intact buildings interred for centuries by a flow of scalding mud triggered by Mount Vesuvius' AD 79 eruption.
• Examine statues, inlaid marble floors, ornate mosaics and wooden items carbonized by the extreme heat.
• Shop for local woodworking at a workshop in Sorrento specializing in this age-old artform.

HELPFUL HINTS
• Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
• Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

PLEASE NOTE
Travel time to Herculaneum is approximately 1½ hours each way by coach. Guests may be required to stand during the brief minibus transfer from the pier.

Date: Oct 21, 2027 Time: 09:00 AM
Duration: 4.15 Hrs Price: $269.00

OVERVIEW

Mingle with fishermen at a seaside village, learn how they rely on ancient techniques to net fish and then dine on their daily catch. In Marsaxlokk, the fishermen will demonstrate some of the fascinating traditional methods they still use. The design of Maltese fishing boats is also centuries old; they are painted in bright primary colors and prominently feature the symbol of an eye on each side of the bow, which is an ancient Phoenician custom. The fishermen will also display their daily catch, which typically includes lampuki, a species more commonly known as dorado or mahi mahi. They will then lead you to the Tartarun Restaurant near the harbor so the chef can cook the fish for your lunch. It might be a beer-battered and fried, roasted with clams or added to a Maltese fish soup known as aljotta. You can help the chef prepare the meal or just watch. Regardless, it will taste sensational.

HIGHLIGHTS

• See how fishermen in the village of Marsaxlokk still use ancient techniques to net fish.
• Look at their daily catch, which will probably include mahi mahi, known locally as lampuki.
• Settle in at a harborside restaurant as the chef cooks the fishermen's catch for your lunch.

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $389.00

OVERVIEW
Race through the seas in an open-air Rigid Inflatable Boat known as a RIB, an exhilarating way to view the beautiful beaches and seaside grottoes that rim Milos Island. Although high-speed, the vessel offers a remarkably smooth ride and has the ability to reach areas that are difficult or impossible to access by land. One of those remote places is Kalogries, a small but spectacular stretch of sand that volcanically formed hills shelter. After relaxing on the beach and swimming in the crystal-clear waters, you will zip off to Sykia Cave, whose ceiling collapsed long ago. The setting of this geological wonder is extraordinary, especially with the natural sunlight bathing the grotto's interior. Even though Sykia is the island's largest sea cave, only a small boat like the RIB can pass through its narrow arched entryway. You will also stop at Kleftiko, another cove with a cave so isolated that pirates once hid there.

HIGHLIGHTS
• Zip along the island's western shore in a high-speed rigid inflatable boat known as a RIB.
• Stop to swim at Kalogries Beach, which is typically uncrowded because it is so remote.
• Cruise into Sykia, a cave without a ceiling that can only be entered in a small boat.

OVERVIEW

OVERVIEW Indulge in a leisurely lunch at a highly acclaimed seafood restaurant overlooking the Dardanelles and explore the city of Canakkale on your own. Although archaeological ruins such as the ancient city of Troy have been unearthed nearby, Canakkale is surprisingly young comparatively, as it was founded in the 15th century. Even so, its history is fascinating as you will learn while walking to the restaurant Yalova. It is known for its meyhane culture, which encourages conversation and joyous socializing while dining and enjoying raki, Turkey's national drink. Meyhane means "house of wine," and you will be served several glasses of it to complement your meal. Although the menu changes frequently, it always includes fresh seafood. You will likely be served small-plate mezes that include seabass ceviche, smoked calamari, grilled octopus and seafood pastries. You can't help but be caught up in the meyhane culture that makes the experience so enjoyable.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Savor a leisurely at a restaurant overlooking the Dardanelles.
