Once the fire is going, you will join the villagers and together prepare soparnik, a dish so traditional that it is included on Croatia’s list of intangible cultural heritage. Known more familiarly as Dalmatian pizza, soparnik is a meatless dish made with wheat flour, Swiss chard, onion, olive oil, garlic and salt. SPU-016 MOUNTAIN VILLAGE EXPERIENCE
Date: Nov 03, 2027 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 4.75 Hrs Price: $139.00

OVERVIEW
Become immersed in Croatian culture by visiting a Dalmatian mountain village, where you will watch a folkloric performance and savor a traditional meal made with local ingredients. After departing from the pier, you will soon leave the urban environment of Split behind and head into the inland mountains of Croatia. The route will be winding, densely forested and wonderfully scenic, as the Dalmatian coast will occasionally come into view. The mountain landscape has changed little over the centuries, and in many ways traditional life has remained unaltered, as well. You will see that firsthand upon entering Radovici, a speck on the map that still celebrates an authentic Croatian village lifestyle. While walking through the streets, you may be offered a glass of local grappa and perhaps a taste of poljicki soparnik, a simply prepared vegetable pie made with onions and chard. The pie is so emblematic of this region that the Ministry of Agriculture has requested that the European Union proclaim it an official product of Croatia, which will protect it against knock-offs claiming to be poljicki soparnik. After exploring the village on foot, a full lunch awaits you at a local family farm. On the way there, you may enjoy participating in balota, a traditional Croatian bowling game similar to bocce in Italy. In keeping with the theme, lunch will consist of authentic local dishes, hearty soup, garden-fresh salad and dessert. As an accompaniment, a folkloric group will sing popular Dalmatian songs. Following this delightful and enlightening cultural experience, you will re-board your coach and transfer back to the pier. Please note: This tour includes approximately 1 hour of moderate walking. There will be some uneven terrain and steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and not considered suitable for those with walking difficulties. Weather appropriate clothing; sun cap; sunglasses; sunscreen; a bottle of water from the ship; and flat, sturdy walking shoes are recommended.

MNA-017 CATANIA ON YOUR OWN
Date: Nov 07, 2027 Time: 08:00 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $109.00

OVERVIEW

Explore captivating Catania independently and concentrate on the attractions that look most interesting to you. After a devastating earthquake in 1693, Catania had to be rebuilt along with seven other cities in southeastern Sicily. The resulting late Baroque architecture and innovative town planning earned Catania a UNESCO World Heritage site designation. You will likely see many of those noteworthy 17th-century buildings while wandering about on your own. Much of the architecture is dark-gray as it was constructed with tuff, a type of rock that contains volcanic ash from the eruptions of Mt. Etna. Much of Catania Cathedral – which is dedicated to Saint Agatha, the city's patron saint – was reconstructed with that volcanic material. You may also wish to see the 2nd-century Roman amphitheater and the Collegiata Church, another landmark that was restored following the earthquake. If shopping sounds appealing, you will find plenty of designer stores and one-of-a-kind boutiques.

HIGHLIGHTS

• Explore Catania at your own pace with no schedule to follow other than your own.
• Spend hours focusing on the landmarks that sound most appealing to you.
• Ask the escort on the ride over to Catania for recommendations if you wish.
• Appreciate the late Baroque architecture that was built after the 1693 earthquake.

HELPFUL HINTS

• Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
• Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

This tour is a transfer only; any extra activities will be at the guests' expense. It is not recommended to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Coaches do not have a lift, and entering and exiting must be done via stairs.
