quaint towns of Thebes, Livadia, and Arachova. Stop at the Castalian Spring, where the ancient Greeks would purify themselves before entering the sanctuary. Next, take in the massive Temple of Apollo, built in the 4th century BC; the Athenian Treasury; the Ancient Theater; and the 5,000-seat stadium, the site of the Pythian Games. Admire fascinating artifacts at the Archaeological Museum of Delphi, home to the famous Statue of Antinoos and the unique bronze statue of the Charioteer. After an included lunch at a traditional Greek restaurant, board your motor coach and return to your hotel in Athens.

Oct 20

After breakfast, delve into Greek history and culture during a half-day tour of Athens. Drive past the Academy's neo-classical buildings, the marble National Library, and Constitution Square's Greek Parliament and Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. See the Panathenaic Stadium, host to the first modern Olympics, and the Temple of Olympian Zeus. Explore the legendary Acropolis with its timeless Parthenon, and visit the new Acropolis Museum, which houses an exceptional and significant collection of classical Greek sculpture. Transfer to Vista in the early afternoon.

Note: These tours involve a moderate amount of walking, some over uneven terrain and may not be suitable for those with walking difficulties. The order of tours may vary.

Known as the cradle of democracy and Western Civilization, Athens is where legend, culture, and classic grandeur come together in one captivating city. The Greek capital is where Plato and Socrates developed their ideas and where the magnificent ruins of their classical world blend with modern Greece. At the head of a wealth of bucket-list destinations to be found here is the Acropolis, with its legendary Parthenon overlooking a city bustling with art galleries and renowned museums.

NJV ATHENS PLAZA

Ideally located in Constitution Square, next to the Greek Parliament and the National Gardens, the NJV Athens Plaza is within walking distance of the Acropolis, Old City (Plaka), and fashionable shops. This deluxe hotel offers five-star services in a warm, elegant environment. A staff trained to the highest international standards allows you to enjoy your stay to the fullest. Relax in either of the hotel's lounges, sample international fare and traditional Greek cuisine in the gourmet restaurant, or treat yourself to 24-hour room service.
