Date: Oct 31, 2025 Time: 09:15 AM
Duration: 3.50 Hrs Price: $169.00

OVERVIEW

Delve into the remains of Herculaneum, a UNESCO World Heritage site that, much like Pompeii, fell victim to Mount Vesuvius' reverberating AD 79 eruption, on this engaging tour that also takes you to a local craft center. You'll learn that Herculaneum's fate didn't quite mirror Pompeii's, since Pompeii was buried in hot volcanic ash that burned everything combustible, whereas Herculaneum was covered by scorching mud that serendipitously preserved the village and prevented looting throughout the centuries. In addition, you'll hear many of the citizens had already departed Herculaneum due to an earthquake that preceded the volcanic eruption by several years, so this city has none of the eerie body casts seen in Pompeii. During your guided tour, you might see upper-class Roman villas overlooking the sea, original statuary, inlaid marble floors, intricate wall mosaics and even carbonized wood artifacts that survived the horrific devastation, all of which provide an astonishing snapshot of life nearly 2,000 years ago. Cap off your illuminating outing with a visit to a craft center, proof that even Vesuvius' destructive outburst couldn't prevent this vibrant corner of Italy from flourishing.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Tour the eye-opening ruins of Roman-era Herculaneum, a UNESCO World Heritage site.
- See nearly intact buildings interred for centuries by a flow of scalding mud triggered by Mount Vesuvius' AD 79 eruption.

In fact, to achieve its Protected Designation of Origin status, Gragnano pasta must dry gradually for as many as four days and be extruded through a bronze die that imparts a rough texture that helps the pasta sauce cling to the noodle. The sights will be even more spectacular as you hike up to San Martino, an oasis well above the urban sprawl. Be sure to see its star-shaped fortress Castel Sant'Elmo and the former 14th-century Carthusian monastery. More fabulous vistas await you while walking downhill along the Pedamentina, a set of several hundred steps built in the 1500s. Wellness Tour

Enjoy a leisurely exploration of Taormina beginning with the boutique-lined boulevard Corso Umberto. As you walk along, you will see designer fashions in the upscale shops and most likely spot ceramic pine cones, a Sicilian symbol of hospitality. Your destination will be Caffè Wunderbar, a family-owned restaurant where you will enjoy a snack of granita and brioche. Granita is a semi-frozen dessert that was made with snow from Mt. Etna in medieval times. Today, the creamy sugary concoction comes in a variety of flavors, including almond, mulberry and lemon. The classic complement to granita is brioche, a sweet bread somewhat similar to a croissant but shaped like small roll. You will encounter other classic Sicilian treats at an open-air market nearby, where you will browse the stalls with the local residents. Afterwards, you will stroll through the leafy Public Gardens. Be sure to notice the English style, as the garden was designed by English conservationist Florence Trevelyan.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Stop at a popular café to enjoy granita and brioche, two complementary Sicilian snacks.
- Browse the stalls of a market and see ingredients commonly used in Sicilian cuisine.
- Stroll an English-style garden that is one of Taormina’s most popular gathering places.

MONASTERY, ASSOS AND WINERY- Companion Discover the diversity of Kefalonia by visiting a 16th-century monastery that the island's patron saint founded, sampling local wines and enjoying free time in the village of Assos. You can see the relics of Saint Gerasimos enclosed in a glass case inside his namesake monastery and the cave where he lived, which for centuries has been the island's most revered pilgrimage site. The selection of wines for the tasting will reflect Argostoli's mild climate and predominately limestone soil. Upon reaching the island's west coast, you will visit Assos, a picturesque fishing village nestled into a craggy hillside. It is an idyllic setting with pastel-colored houses and leafy squares where you might relax in the shade. The best views are from the waterfront promenade.

Gaze into the crater of a still-active volcano and experience the green sulfuric waters of a thermal spring on this fascinating tour. Board a caique, a traditional fishing boat, and sail to the lava rock islet of Nea Kameni, where you'll take an approximately 20-minute walk up an unpaved path among lava fragments and volcanic rock formations toward the crater of a still-active volcano. Learn that the island was named Nea Kameni, meaning "new burnt," because it is only 400 years old. Re-board the caique for an approximately 20-minute cruise to the thermal springs at the nearby island of Palea Kameni. Time permitting, you may take a dip in the relaxing, mineral-rich waters, whose temperatures can sometimes reach 98 degrees Fahrenheit. Marvel at nature's awesome power and resilience in these glorious volcanic sites.

- View lava fragments, volcanic rock formations and steam likely rising from the crater.

Few views can rival looking up at the barren rocky cliffs from the water with Fira blanketing the top. If the water conditions do not permit us to cruise as an alternative, you may relax on a beach that offers its own unique perspective of Santorini.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Behold the beauty of Santorini while traveling between the villages of Oia.

JTR-016 HOW IT'S BUILT SANTORINI & AKROTIRI
ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE
Date: Nov 06, 2025 Time: 09:30 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $159.00

OVERVIEW

Recognize how Santorini's architecture has evolved through the centuries by visiting cities that were built during different time periods. At Akrotiri – the so-called Pompeii of the Bronze Age – you will see the archaeological remains of homes with colorful frescoes and streets lined with commercial buildings that reveal urban life in the Minoan period. Volcanic ash from a second millennium B.C. eruption preserved the buildings. Another historical perspective awaits you in the village of Pyrgos, where you will see a 13th-century Venetian castle so well-built that it survived a 1956 earthquake that destroyed many of the buildings around it. The 15th-century castle in clifftop Oia didn't survive that earthquake nearly as well, as much of it collapsed into the sea. The village is better known for its Ottoman-influenced winding streets and gorgeous white-washed houses trimmed in blue. The architecture is quintessentially Cycladic and the views of the ancient caldera below are spectacular.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Browse the excavated ruins of a Minoan-era archaeological site in Akrotiri.
- Meander through Pyrgos, a medieval settlement and former capital of Santorini.
- Observe the classic Cycladic architecture in the whitewashed village of Oia.
- Hear about the volcanic eruptions that have shaped Santorini, especially the one in 1956.

HELPFUL HINTS

- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

PLEASE NOTE

Tour includes long periods of walking over various terrain and uneven surfaces. Please be prepared for high temperatures during the summer season. This tour will only include entrance to Akrotiri. The tour is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair, scooter, or who have any walking limitations. Date: Nov 06, 2025 Time: 10:00 AM
Duration: 5.00 Hrs Price: $169.00

OVERVIEW

Hike along the rim of the massive caldera that a violent volcanic eruption formed millennia ago and spend free time in at the Kamari Beach. The caldera is the largest in Europe and such a significant natural phenomenon that UNESCO declared it a World Geological Heritage site. As you hike around the edge of the caldera, starting at Imerovigli and heading towards Fira, you will be treated to enjoy sweeping views of the hauntingly beautiful, stark landscape. To enhance the experience, the guide will describe some of the legends associated with Santorini's volcanic eruptions, in particular the one that supposedly caused the mythical city of Atlantis to disappear into the sea. The sights are equally photogenic in Fira, where white-washed houses built on the steep slope of the caldera. Feel free to admire the traditional Cycladic architecture and behold the remains of the 15th-century castle.

OVERVIEW

Enjoy a panoramic drive through the most historical areas of Istanbul at night, when the city will be illuminated and absolutely mesmerizing. To reach the Old Town, you will cross Galata Bridge, which spans the Golden Horn, a waterway named for the shimmering golden color it takes on as the sun sets. You will then pass the so-called new mosque, which was constructed in the 17th century, on the way to expansive Sultanahmet Square. As you will see firsthand, the square offers extraordinary views of the Blue Mosque and the Hagia Sophia, a former cathedral that was converted into a mosque. Both iconic buildings will radiate in the up-lighting, which casts bold shadows that make features such as the soaring minarets look even more dramatic. Upon reaching the Kumkapi quarter, you will settle in at an atmospheric restaurant for a traditional dinner. Chances are, seafood will be on the menu as Kumkapi is renowned for it.
